

Department of Urban & Regional Planning

Dr. Hossam M. K. Aboulfotouh

Email: fotouh28@yahoo.com

Dear student; open, print, and review the files of the following lectures; and also, download any other file that you may find its hyperlink in the lecture-files. You received the printouts for the lectures number 6 and 12; yet, you can follow the links to the original sources in English, e.g., search at the World Bank web site for that policy paper and other publications on housing. And, also, search at the web site of the United Nations Human Settlements Program for other publications.

No. of lecture	Subject
Lecture#1	Informal Houses and Informal Districts (Bylaw for Improving and Developing Makkah Informal Districts , in Arabic)
Lecture#2	Provision and Delivery of Houses by Public and Private Sectors.
Lecture#3	Housing loans and mortgage finance for the affordability's buyer-version
Lecture#4	Renting a house that ends with seizing
Lecture#5	Short run supply of old houses & housing demand estimates.
Lecture#6	On Adequate Shelter for All, Habitat-II Agenda, 1996 , (you received its printout, in Arabic)
Lecture#7	Notes on the development of the deteriorated areas in inner city historic core(s) and informal districts
Lecture#8	Mid term Exam
Lecture#9	Reckoning the rent that encourages the restoration of old houses in the inner city historic area
Lecture#10	Projects' presentation: on the result of field survey to record the market-rents of 100 old houses in Jeddah's inner city historic core.
Lecture#11	Reckoning the restoration cost/loan and the rent after restoration
Lecture#12	On Housing: Enabling Markets to Work; World Bank policy paper, 1993, (you received its printout, in English)

Department of Urban & Regional Planning
URP-401 Course on HOUSING-II for [ZA]

Dr. Hossam M. K. Aboulfotouh

Email: fotouh28@yahoo.com