

Notes to Potential Editors

By Don Meinshausen

The enclosed essays, poems, songs and humor were written by a person who is currently in prison. I am sending these to various pagan and libertarian zines and blogs. I have been published by many zines and blogs so I accept the normal editing for grammar and brevity. Please send edited copy and comments to me about how edited and suggestions for better writing regardless if you wish to publish me. Comments from readers are sought so that I can learn what they are looking for. If you find too many puns in my more serious pieces you may soften them or edit them out but remember that is my hallmark. Strike while the irony is hot.

Since I am unable to be quickly contacted I leave it to you, editors from Reason, Liberty and various blogs to decide among yourselves about who can first publish me. Largest circulation gets priority unless you want to send me money, books or such. I am quite poor here. So you guys decide among yourselves. You must however send me a copy of my work as published and you must list my prison address so that I can hear from readers. If you can, please print "How to help Don while in prison" piece as well if you can. This is available from Carol Moore 202-635-3739. She has a blog of her own. If she does not hear from you guys in a week she will send it out to everyone in an e-mail blast to copy. Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law and harm ye none.

The same holds true to pagan outlets as well. This will hopefully be sent to the Order of Bards in England, Pagan/net, Green Egg and Pangaia. Decide among yourselves who prints what. I would like to be in everyone's blog or zine eventually. Send me some back issues/ printouts, pamphlets books etc. Let people know who I am and how I can be reached.

I have been mentioned favorably in 4 different books about the politics of the 60's. I will be out in 2008 and may be able to travel so that I can give readings, lectures and lead workshops. Check out my autobiography and see how many famous people I was associated with and some of the amazing magick that I've done. Just Google my name. If you can't or won't print submissions then send them to someone who might.

I am especially looking for comments on my Athenia Project, The Kwan Yin Project and Ganesha Project which should appeal to all political types and pagans. Permission to print these and other works you find on the net are freely given here. Correspondence and blessings are sought. I am a member of CAW and a Unitarian. Perfect Love and Perfect Trust.
