New Business

T-shirts $15.00 each (new guild logo) and would be nice if received before April retreat, designed by Carol's friend, they are short sleeve. Orders will be taken today.

For April (1) be thinking about Silent Auction - apparently lot of people have complained about Silent Auction, and most suggested not to have auction anymore, so in September will have yard sale of items. Note that if an item is more costly and doesn't need to be in silent auction, put a minimum price on it, and when finished selling, make a contribution to guild; and (2) to generate money for guild of those UFO's that will never be finished, whether wrong color, hard to complete, etc., put in bag with pattern to exchange or sell.

In the snippet bag for today's sewing (provided by Donna Crow), find a cookie and a ticket for door prizes.

Spring Retreat - Peggy Williams. Persons going needs to pay $50.00 deposit or balance of trip. A deposit needs to be mailed next week. A shop hop will be done on the way and there are several shops to visit once upon arrival of destination.

Margaret Rose - "Glory In Scraps" Quilt - VA will sell by auction next week, Margaret will have pictures.

Hospitality - Jackie Crumley - this month thanks Gloria Davis, Beth Staples and Celesia Burke, next month refreshments will be provided by Joe Buttner (Sweet), Judith Miller (Salty), and Sue Robinson (Fruit).

Publicity - Ann Von Allmen - Asked about publicity for Quilt Show. Carol reported posters have been made and are available for distribution, and will tell more about this next month.

Carol told of her nephew's death and about how the Hospice Organization include for babies a hat & blanket and there's even a book for his siblings. The baby lived for a short time and while he was wrapped in the blanket looked exactly like an angel. She encouraged guild to be thinking about an outreach program for guild to do.

Show & Tell - will be in the next room.

Carol has tickets for sale for the Alabama Quilt.

There being no further questions/discussion motion made to adjourn meeting at 10:35a.m. 1st by Ann Von Allmen, 2nd by Sue Robinson. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Jackie Crumley
Secretary
