

Attach the head cut from tan (I offer various shades) construction paper.

The children add hair and facial features.

For hair some children like to use pieces of yarn, others add scrapes of paper and still others prefer to just draw in their hair.

Now you're finally ready to open the shirt flap and glue in the writing.

Post these on a bulletin board and watch for the positive comment!