" "And so if we had mair siller, we might buy that bonny pastureground, where the grass comes so early? When, in a moment's irresolution, he looked at Charity, he could not but observe a struggle in her face between a sense of triumph and a sense of shame; nor could he but remark how, meeting even his eyes, which she cared so little for, she turned away her own, for all the splenetic defiance in her manner. It was a surprise to me to find it in a grave retired place, apart from the general resort, and carpeted with smooth green turf. "I guess the Magician who put it on the island never thought that any one would carry it off," said Dorothy. " "No, but there is sky all around it," answered Coralie. "I don't know," said Carrie vaguely a flesh vision of the possibility of her not securing employment rising in her mind. Matai Shang spoke to the paddlers. I found some of my clothes here, with linen and other articles, as well as my writingcase, containing pen, ink, and paper, which enables me, at my leisure which, God knows, is undisturbed enough to make this record of my confinement. The accounts that have been written of this affair vary very widely. In a Chicago paper which she found lying one day on a desk which Cowperwood had occupied was an extended editorial which interested her greatly. I give the following case the more readily, as Gartner doubted similar statements previously made with respect to the stock by other observers. The professor _now_ spoke politely, and even deferentially, and he looked apologetic and repentant; but I could not recognise his civility at a word, nor meet his contrition with crude, premature oblivion.
