

The Irish American Cultural Institute of Philadelphia Presents...

A NIGHT OF MAGIC & COMEDY

Saturday, June 4, 2005, 8-12 PM
Ashburner Inn, 8400 Torresdale Ave

$25.00 per person includes
ENTERTAINMENT - BEER -WINE -SODA

All proceeds go towards IACI-PHL Scholarship programs.
For advanced ticket info: Call Joe Fox T#: 215-612-1447.

Magician Eric Dasher - Be prepared to be amazed! "Eric's popularity has soared in the past few years...This recognition has made Eric one of Philadelphia, South Jersey, and Atlantic City's most sought after entertainers."

Comedian Joey Callahan - As a comedy writer, Joey has worked for such names as Jay Leno, Jimmie "J.J." Walker, and Harry Anderson. As a stand up comic, Joey has been seen on Comedy Central, ESPN's "Lighter Side of Sports," and Fox TV and is a national headliner and opening act for Richard Belzar, Steven Wright, Joe Piscopo, and Weird Al Yankovic. The Philadelphia Inquirer called Joey "one of the most clever young comics on the comedy club scene today."

Comedian John Kensil - Funnyman John Kensil has written for the Tonight Show and has worked at clubs throughout the US including Carolines, The Laugh Factory, The Comedy Store, and more. He has made numerous TV appearances, including Carolines Comedy Hour, ESPN, Good Morning America, and Comedy Central.