

The barycentric subdivision gives a simplicial decomposition of the real moduli.

The barycenters of the maximal simplices form the vertices of $GG(n)$. The arrows among them are the edges. $G(n)$ shows the incidence relations between associahedra. $GG(n)$ shows the incidence relations among the simplices of the first barycentric subdivision.