

Gilliam County SWCD Annual Dinner Meeting Photos

December 6, 2007

This is how we set everything up.

Table Arrangements

Table centerpieces were purchased from Darla Seale at Country Flowers and used as door prizes.

Other door prizes were: Farm equipment toys & 4 $20 gift certificates from Morrow County Grain Growers; Weed Eater from John Deere; Wine & L. L. Bean Organizer from Jordan Maley; and a gift certificate for a free horse shoeing from Roger Lathrop.

The sign-in sheet for our guests. Cheryl helped guests sign in, checked names off the RSVP list, and received money for dinners.

At the end of the evening she was able to write a check for the total amount of the dinner cost to the Elks.

This worked out very well.

Banners and posters we displayed showing some of our projects during the past year.

A singing guest speaker:

George Taylor, State Climatologist from Oregon State University, entertains everyone with his El Nino song. His presentation on climate changes in the Pacific Northwest gave us a different perspective as to the cause of global warming with a wonderful element of humor.

And our wonderful dinner meeting attendees!
