THE BILL OF RIGHTS AND THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

 OUT LOUD ON JULY 4 ***
IN STRAWBERRY FIELDS *

with
SPECIAL GUESTS, STATE SENATORS BILL PERKINS AND ERIC ADAMS, THE REV. BILLY AND OTHERS

At our Second Annual July 4 Read-In, Mr. Siegel, the legendary civil liberties attorney who represented the grannies at their six-day trial following their arrest and imprisonment when they tried to enlist in the military at the Times Square Recruiting Center on Oct. 17, 2005, along with those grandmothers, elected officials and other civic minded individuals will read aloud parts of the CONSTITUTION, the Bill of Rights and the Declaration of Independence. The Rev. Billy and members of the No Shop Chorus, will SING the First Amendment.

Commented Siegel: "Our 4th of July event in Strawberry Fields/Central Park, with New Yorkers reading aloud sections of the U.S. Constitution and Declaration of Independence and embracing its provisions is a terrific way to celebrate this most important American holiday."

Senator Barack Obama and Michelle Obama have been invited to attend and participate in the reading.

WHEN: Friday, July 4, noon

WHERE: Strawberry Fields in Central Park -- enter park at 72nd Street and Central Park West. It's just a hop and a skip into the park.
