

STOCK HORSE RACE:

It is set up like the barrel race though with three pegs/poles. From the start line, the competitors must take a right hand turn around the right peg, a left hand turn around the left peg, then a right hand turn around the end peg before heading back over the start line. Elimination will occur if the course is done incorrectly, or if a peg is knocked over or broken. The winner is the person with the fastest time.

