

Grammar Assignment: Week 5 (Assignment 1)

Interjection: a word that expresses feeling or emotion; it functions independently of the sentence (Ex: Wow! I can't believe you ate that! Darn! I failed the algebra quiz!)

Directions: Add an interjection to each sentence using the emotion in parenthesis as a guide.

- 1) She looks like an angel! (excitement)
- 2) Ramona, grieving does not suit you! (anger)
- 3) Why did Papa have to die? (grief)
- 4) Esperanza wake up, the house is on fire! (urgency)
- 5) I am sorry for my daughter's poor manners. (disgust)
- 6) She has six children and sells eggs to survive. (amazement)
- 7) Mama, we can't possibly all fit! (horror)
- 8) Are these my papa's roses? (wonder)
- 9) Get away from the window, the dirt and wind can break the glass! (desperation)
- 10) The immigration police are coming! (fear)