Arrival of the: “VISCOUNT CANNING”

The barque Vicount Canning, 751 ton, Captian Wright, formerly here in the ship Katherine Swetart Forhes, anchored in the harbour at 11p.m. on Saturday, after a tedious passage of 124 days from the Downs.

She passed through the Downs on the 20th September, had to beat down Channel, and took her final start from the lizini on the 28th September, passing to the east of Madeira on the 7th October. Experienced very light N.E. trades, losing them in 8°17'.N. and afterwards had the wind south until the 4th November, when the equator was crossed in 29° W longitude. Had S.E. trades for five days and then light and battling winds for six days. Made Tristan d'Adhunia on 30th November, and stood off and on for two days, for purpose of obtaining water and fresh provisions. Unsettled weather prevailed afterwards, until making the Three Kings on the 19th instant. She ran down her easting between 45 and 46°8'. On the 12th October, in latitude 27°24' N, longitude 19°12'W, the ship Ramsey was spoken, bound from London to Otago, 24 days out, and on the 27th November the ship Agnes Lee, from Kingston to Simon's Bay, with troops, 69 days out.

The Viscount Canning brings 168 passengers.
