Stone, Stone

EQUIPMENT: One small stone, about half the size of a walnut

SITUATION: Open area

TIME:10 minutes

DIRECTIONS:

1. Have players stand in a circle, facing inward. The players shoulders should be less than a foot apart.
2. Choose someone to be "It." This player stands in the center of the circle.
3. Each player (not It) should raise her left hand (bent at the elbow) and extend it, palm up toward the player on her left. Each player should then pretend they are holding a small stone in her right hand and place her "fist" in the palm of her left hand.
4. The object of the game is to pass a stone around the circle without "It" guessing who has it. All players, moving in unison, move their right hand (pretending to hold the stone) from her left palm across to the palm of the player on her right. (This movement should
