

Teaching. While studying in Loughborough, I provide French and lessons to students and professionals on a part-time basis.

Project manager of a student society.

While studying in France, I became the treasurer for one of my university's Student Society. I was responsible for the financial management of various activities such as organizing and facilitating conferences, setting up and managing the budget.

Participant and organiser of a social group.

While in France, I was also an active member of a society called "Phareouest" that helps unemployed people and young graduate students to find employment.

My role involved providing psychological support to job seekers by helping them to write cover letters, CV and checking skill set of job seekers.
