The January's secretary report was read and approved.

There was no treasurer's report.

Bills presented and approved for payment were:

$ 139.00 Herald Journal Publishing – spotlight ads
$ 374.83 Buckets for 1st place awards at the open show
$ 50.00 Union Hall rent for the year
$ 35.00 Shelby Manor – Jr Royalty
$ 100.00 Hannah Rawson – Sr Royalty

The county minutes were read.

Old Business:

The dance at the T-Bar is Saturday, February 21st. We will need help at the door selling raffle tickets. Sue ordered the ribbons and medallions for the shows. Treasure's books need to be audited.

New Business:

Pierce County Vet will once again be holding their annual coggins clinic. Possible dates are March 27 & 28 and April 17th & 18th. If you haul your horse in, the cost of the coggins is only $ 15.00. More details will follow when the date has been finalized.

It was brought up that the fall fun show on September 26th coincides with the WSCA champ show. It was voted to move the fun show to Saturday, September 19th.

We discussed the current crown situation. One was recently sent to Ohio to be fixed. We will send a thank you letter with a box of chocolates (approved was $ 25.00) as they did not charge us for the work. Some of the crowns are in bad enough shape that repairs are not holding and they may need to be replaced in the near future.

The meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be Friday, March 6th at 7 pm at the Labor Union Hall in Red Wing.

Respectfully submitted,

Dana Blattner
Secretary
