Sometimes painting life with a broad brush can cause you to miss messy details that then slow you down. The next three weeks are a great time to pause and make sure the rug rats and ankle biters are not in a position to sidetrack your whole operation because you ignored them. It's time to give the small things their due so they can serve your larger purpose. By doing so, you may discover a better version of your own vision as well. Don't hurry, you've got time, and you may find that in the end tapping resources you had ignored will trigger a rising tide that floats all boats, not just your own.

After a few weeks of uncertainty about the big picture, your panorama on life returns somewhat amended. False starts have led to a focus on correcting details that have distracted from the overall plan, but these are being put behind you so you can return to your former path with a steadier hand on the helm. What you are putting together now will shortly have a direct effect on what people will be saying about you and your career plans, so don't toss off your ideas lightly. You will have the opportunity to impact your surroundings more than you think if you choose to, but you must make the choice.

This begins a three-week period during which you have the opportunity to refine and perhaps repurpose the way you project yourself in your surroundings. Round off the raw edges and pull in any potential entanglements that might be slowing you down. You have not only the right, but sometimes the obligation, to change your mind in order to insure consistency and personal impact. Toward the end, this may particularly include tightening up solutions to previously resolved issues to be sure they are well in hand. When you've got all your ducks in a row, you won't have to look back.

Just when you thought you were home free, someone called time out and now you have to rework your game plan and refocus your approach. Mercury backpedaling on your Ascendant means you will have to touch up your personal presentation and make sure you are leading with the best -- and the most truthful -- game plan. What may seem like reversal is only delay, and you'll be glad in the end that it happened, giving you time to clear previously overlooked stones from your pathway. Once past selective makeover, you will find your image successfully bears scrutiny at every level.

If loss of communications has left you clueless, you can start collecting more reliable evidence again. When exterior sources fail to provide the information you need, you may have to rely on your inner resources and come to your own conclusions without external input. However, if you can avoid tying yourself down, that would be a better choice, as things may be going on without your knowledge that will surface soon and give you a better handle on your operations. When the mist clears, you'll have the opportunity to really make yourself seen and heard.

Mercury Conjunct Ascendant

Mercury making its turnaround on your Ascendant can give you the opportunity to be the person with the first word in -- the solution-maker -- if you let it happen. Don't be afraid to chime in with new ideas, even if there has been a lot of confusion of late, because now is the time when resolutions finally become available and forward motion can begin again. People will tend to look to you to be the instigator, so don't disappoint them, let your ideas out of the box where they can do some good. You may not get everything you want, but you'll be first out of the gate, and the beginning is half of everything.

For a period you may find yourself wondering if the people you're involved with on an everyday basis are worth all the trouble, and you may consider doing a little pruning of time-wasters and social situations that give less satisfaction than they promise. In fact, you may discover that less is more in terms of your social appetite and a breath of peaceful fresh air beats the excitement of a crowded venue. The issue is an internal one, and giving up at this point may actually result in getting more down the line as you resolve your priorities. In fact, in the end, you may find you save money in the process....

Sorting out your resources and prioritizing what you have in hand may have required some shifting over the past few weeks, but you'll find that plans can begin to firm up as you decide what you want to heat up and what should be put on the back burner. Possibilities that pay off short-term should be optimized first, but do not entirely round file potential moneymakers that take longer to mature. Knowing what you really want and who you want to deal with is the determinant -- indecision leads to undoing, so when you step forward, step with confidence and commitment. Indicate and you will vindicate.

Playful creativity can be a hallmark of the next three weeks, but only if you are willing to let it take its course wherever it leads. Don't expect to follow a straight track but go where things lead you until you start to establish a pattern. Only then can you get back to the main highway after an enlightening detour onto the scenic route. Don't be surprised if this muddies previously held opinions toward the end, as the new alternatives you will be finding will more than make up for any inconveniences or confusions experienced along the way.

A period of some delays, detours, and slowdowns has turned the corner and with a little more fine-tuning life operations will be not only back to normal but improved. Issues having to do with direction and creative focus begin to resolve themselves and turn out to have been only temporary delays, not fundamental problems. Once you have buttoned down the last of the recently arisen distractions, you can put your mind fully on the game and get back to being the you you always thought you were, only better. The exercise provided by internal troubleshooting and introspection brings you back stronger than ever.

Mars Stationary Retrograde in 01st House

You are entering a period where personal action may be met with some frustration as the combination of energy, resources, inclination, and opportunity for accomplishment will not come together so easily. Expect a lot of backing and filling on everyone's part in order to get things done and try not to press too hard or show too much impatience. Everyone is in the same boat, and you risk confrontation or even injury if you push too much without looking carefully at where you are and who you're up against. Slow and steady wins this race.

Mars Conjunction Ascendant (Retrograde)

Mars turning around on your Ascendant may set you a bit off-center and it's a good time to take a second look at your balance mechanisms, your internal compass that keeps you from tripping over your feet. Expect the rug underneath you to be at least a little bit tugged at, so be light on your feet and ready to redeploy your stance when the need arises. If the temptation to get physical suddenly arises, make sure it's in the interest of love and not conflict -- right now you'll do a lot better with the former than the latter. Keep your eyes on the path before you so you don't step in it.

It has been easy to run aground lately just as you thought you were underway and bound for deep water. It would appear, however, that you've found all the sandbars and now only the channel lies ahead. Nevertheless, don't steam ahead as if there is no tomorrow until you're sure you've got a good grip on the wheel and all the fog has lifted. This is particularly true as new vistas open up, and you will not want to have to make a major course change in order to steer toward a more bountiful horizon. Cautious moves now enable more emboldened ones in the near future.

Mars Conjunction Ascendant

Mars hesitating and then turning on your Ascendant tends to give a push that can be a ride or a fall, depending on how well-prepared you are. Expect a period of elevated energy, when you feel propelled on by an extra shove, but don't let that inadvertently shove you into oncoming traffic or rashly into a situation you should have stayed out of. It's easy to encounter, or be, a hothead, so remember that cooler heads are always the best to prevail, so let them. However, this is ideal for high-energy output, just look before you leap and don't get overtaken by the tide.
