

SOMEONE TAKE RESPONSIBILITY, PLEASE?

---

TOPIC: Responsibility

Outline of the Evening:

- I. Testimony and Administrative Things
  - A. March 31 Art Night
  - B. Other forgotten announcements
  - C. Icebreaking Game

- II. Inductive Discussion
  - A. Find Bible verses that potentially talk about taking responsibility for what you do.
  - B. Think of Biblical characters or Christian figures (except Jesus) who exemplify responsibility.

- III. Deductive Discussion
  - A. Responsibility: the ownership of one's actions
    - i. It requires honesty
    - ii. It requires humility
  - B. Scriptures: Genesis 3: 6-13, 4: 8-9; 1 Samuel 13:11; Matthew 27: 24-25
  - C. Why should we take responsibility for our own actions?
    - i. Taking responsibility is honesty with oneself
    - ii. Good character.
    - iii. Responsibility implies humility and selflessness.
  - D. How can we cultivate responsibility?
    - i. We will tie this in with honesty, witness, Simply put, imagine honesty and good Christian witness paired with irresponsibility.

- IV. Journal Time
  - A. Are you a responsible person? In other words, are you the type of person who blames others for what you did wrong?
  - B. If YES, how can I know you are one? (Basically, prove to me that you're responsible)
  - C. If NOT, how can your fellow YG friends help you be more responsible? How can YOU change?
  - D. If YES AND NO, when are you responsible, and when not? And how can we help you with the not responsible parts?

- V. Prayer