AC. Ignatius b 1686, Charles Co.⁹⁷
 d 1765, Charles Co.
 1m Rebecca Lowe probably in the early 1700's⁹⁸
 d/o Major John Lowe and Rebecca ?Wright?⁹⁹
 2m Magdalen Thompson
 d/o John Thompson and Mary Green¹⁰⁰

⁹⁷ On Aug 13, 1734, Ignatius Hagan of Charles Co. made a deposition that he was forty-eight years old and the neighbor of Thomas and Mary Bowling of Charles Co. Page 528 [of what?]

⁹⁸ She was not 15 years of age when her father, Major John Lowe made his will on May 30, 1698. Rebecca Wright (sister of Tabitha Wright Mills, wife of Thos.. Blandford, I) then married Thos. Mudd, Jr.

⁹⁹ From The Mudd Family, p 1478: "John Lowe is said to have been b in England in 1600 and was Major of the colonial Troops of St. Mary's Co. He married Rebecca (surname not certain, but possibly Wright). His issue were:

1. John 2d of Prince George Co.; d 1774; m Mary Hawkins
2. Elizabeth m (probably) Henry Mudd
3. Eleanor
4. Rebecca

The children of John 2nd is also given. Cf. also National Genealogical Society Quarterly, March 1963, Lowe of Denby, County Derby, England and Maryland, Crowther, G. Rodney III, esp. p 42."

Deed PG Co. Liber I, p 42 - 13 Aug 1720: Ignatius Hagan and Rebecca, his wife d/o Major John Lowe, dec'd of SM Co., of the one part and Thos. Addison of PG witnesseth that Major John Low late of St. M. dec'd did by Will beq. to dau. Rebecca a tract of land surveyed for Wm. Hutchison, late of PG called "The Garden" 150A in Chas. Co but now in PG with Thos. Hagan (signed) Ignat "X" & Rebecca "R". From Maguire File.

Martha Pikell gives Wright as the maiden name of Rebecca who married John Lowe and states that she married secondly Thomas Mudd II. Pikell MSS, p 2. Also she says: Major John Lowe was Major of the colonial Troops of St. Mary's Co. His will was dated 1698 and probated 1701; it names his wife Rebecca, his son, John, and his daughters Elizabeth, Alie, Eleanor, and Rebecca (liber 21:208)

¹⁰⁰ From the notes of Harry Wright Newman in the archives of Charles Co. Community College: He gives the parents of Magdalen Thompson and says that she was not married at the time of her father's will was proved (?) 2 Mar 1733; Liber 22, f 66, Hall of Records.

Abstract of the Will of Ignatius Hagan¹⁰¹

My wife Magdalen Hagan, ex., to inherit all the land joining the plantation and the plantation I now dwell on: 100 A of "Good Intent" and after her decease to my son William; 100 A on north side of a road called Parran Rd to Magdalen as long as she lives and after her decease to my loving son Joseph Hagan, my son Thomas Hagan the plantation he now lives on and 100 A adjoining it; which I bought of John Baggot, my son Joseph Hagan the remaining part called Good Intent.

My son James Hagan: one cow and calf daughter Mary Hagan and daughter Sarah Hagan: one negro called "Sue" daughter Elizabeth Speak: one shilling of sterling

daughter Eleanor Wheeler daughter Ann Blanford: one shilling of sterling my wife Magdalen Hagan personal estate. Witnesses: Ign Smith, James Hagan, and Basil Hagan.

His executrix, Magdalen filed an inventory on Nov 10, 1765, and she registered the disbursements in the Balance Book, Liber 5, f 68 A&B, James Hagan and Wm. Thompson, securities.

Note: Son John is not mentioned unless he is William.

¹⁰¹From Annie Walker Burns' Abstracts of Wills in Charles and St. Mary's Counties, p 87: Will of Ignatius Hagan of Charles Co., L 33, f 421-2) is dated 26 Mar 1761, proved 15 Oct 1765. Also abstract by Martha Pikell.

¹⁰³ "James of Ignatius" is listed 1778 Census of Md, Chas. Co. Bryantown Hundred; also in 1790 Census of Chas Co.: males, 1 16+, 1 16-; females 3. A second "James" is also listed in 1778 census; who is he?

The 1800 "Census" of Ky lists three James Hagan's plus James A(quilla?) in Nelson Co. Martha Pikell gathered the following information on a James living on Froman Creek:

Deed Book 6, 216: 1 Aug 1803!, Nelson Co., Ky: Peter Hahn and Peggy, his wife to Mary Hagan, widow; Julian and Mary Magdalen Hagan, heirs to James Hagan, dec'd, for £50, current money, for 40 A. of land in Nelson Co on the waters of Froman Creek, being part of tract where sd Hahn now lives.

Inventory of James Hagan: $107.80, appraisers took oath 19 Nov 1813!; it was recorded 19 Dec 1814. Mrs. Pikell concludes that "since we have no record of any other James dying there in 1800-1820 period, this would refer to Mary's husband." James is on the Nelson Co. tax lists from 1796 to 1801, and then Mary in 1802, 1813 to 1815 with 40 A., but no land in 1816, and she does not appear on the rolls at all in 1817. Since nothing indicates she sold the land, one can suppose that when Mary Magdalen married Aquilla (son of Basil, who had property on the east side of Froman Creek), he farmed the land. From a letter by Martha S. Pikell to Celia Keeling.

¹⁰⁴ From Martha Pikell's mss: "At court on 27 Dec 1766, Mary Hagan, ca 50 yrs. swore that seven yrs. ago she lived at the home of Mr. Wm Simpson for about 10 months (William Simpson 1700-1784, s/o Thomas and Mary Matthews Simpson; his widow was Rachel)." Is this the same Mary?

In the 1790 Census of Prince George Co. a Mary Hagan is listed with 3 females in her house and no one else.

¹⁰⁵ Cf. Martha Pikell's work on the Blandford family in the Blandford file of the Nelson Co. Library. From another note in BTS file by Mrs. Pikell: Ann Hagan, d/o Ignatius, Will 1765, may also have been a Blandford's wife, Thomas, as she is so listed in Will Liber 33, f 421-422, Chas. Co. Thomas Blandford who died in Chas. Co, prior to 4 Mar 1793 left a wife Ann, so named in Chas. Co. Land Records L #4, f 45-47. This Thomas and Ann Blandford are parents of Rebecca who married Wm Wight and went to Wash. Co. c 1800. He and his sister Monica Hagan were children of John Blandford who married twice: Rebecca ---- who was alive in 1754 and 2nd wife was Elizabeth ---- whom many think was also a Hagan since they had a son named Hagan Blandford.

¹³⁷ From Charles Co. Gentry, 147. On Nov 2 1774, Richard Edelen purchased from John Hagan, bricklayer, of Fairfax Co. Virginia a portion of "Lanternam", "...the dwelling of my father Ignatius Hagan containing 65 A." Ann/Mary, the wife of John, relinquished her third. This John Hagan, however, does not appear in his father's will, but the evidence above shows that he is the son of Ignatius.

¹³⁸ The Deposition of Francis Montgomery aged forty-three years or thereabouts who being sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God declares that in the year 1733 he this Deponent came with Thomas Hagan, James Hagan and Ignatius Hagan who was then running out James Hagans Land and they came to the oak mentioned in Bowling Speaks Deposition above and that Thomas Hagan Clapping his Hand upon the said Tree said that it was a bounded tree of James Hagans land and that he the said Thomas Hagan Either Bounded it himself or saw it Bounded ... "

"16 Jan 1753: The Deposition of John Hagan aged Twenty Six years or thereabouts who being sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God Declares That at the same time mentioned in Patrick Glaze's Deposition above [1744] he the Deponent was Present and in Company with James Hagan who Came down[?] to a fork of a Branch Called Bryans Branch by which he now stands and that the said James Hagan told this Deponent somewhere hereabouts stood a Gum Tree which was a Bound Tree both of his Land and also of Thomas Bryans Land and further this Deponent saith not. Page 349 [of what?]

d. Isaac age 9 in 1830?

C? Ann m Thomas Blandford

¹⁴⁰ In the book 1790 Census of VA, John Hagan of Fairfax Co. VA, appears on the tax lists of 1782 with 7 whites

1785 with 5 whites, 2 dwellings, 1 other building.

Henry Hagan is also listed in 1782 with 3 whites and 1 black.

In the 1787 Census of VA, Charles and Francis Hagan appear for Fairfax Co. They could be the reason that John's household goes from seven to five in 1782 and 1785, and therefore his sons. Francis, who had not married by 1818, appears on the 1810 Census of VA with two women: one 26-45 and the other 45 plus. Perhaps they are sisters who did not marry. There are no Hagan wills in Fairfax Co. through 1791 and no Hagan marriages in Fairfax Co. 1742-1853.

¹⁴¹ Pension application: S 36007, made 1 Apr 1818. He enlisted for two years in Capt John Fitzgerald's Co, the third regiment of VA; then reenlisted in Major Wm. Washington's corp of light dragoons for three years. In 1818: "He has no family (never having married) connection that he knows of having survived all the other members of his family except possibly a brother who removed about 20 years ago to the western country. Whether he is still alive he does not know. He also was a revolutionary soldier." Petitioner was 64 years old 1 Apr 1818. Petition was Made in the District of Columbia and granted there at $8 per month.

Francis Hagin (Hagan) VA Served as corporal in the 3rd Continental Line

Francis Hagin VA Served in the Fourth Light Dragon

¹⁴² In the book 1787 Census of VA, Francis Hagan appears on p 1055, the same page as Charles, with 00010. On the 1810 Census of VA, there are two entries for Francis Hagan

1810 Census Hagin, Francis, #200 30001 02110 00

1810 Census Haggin, Francis, #200 00001 00011 18

Which is correct or are they both correct? The second would make some sense: brother and two sisters.

¹⁴³ In the book 1787 Census of VA, Charles Hagan is listed in Fairfax Co with 00012 on p 1055.

¹⁴⁴ In his petition of 22 Oct 1830, he says that he sold land in Nelson Co. KY in 1817.
