INTRODUCTION

This manuscript traces the family of Thomas Hagan, a Catholic, who arrived in Maryland in 1662 and settled eventually in Charles Co., MD. He married Mary and had nine children: James, Mary Sarah, Charity, Ann, Elizabeth, Thomas, Ignatius, William. From them descend a veritable host of families. By the mid eighteenth century, the Hagans began to move out into Frederick and Prince George Co, MD. Then after the American Revolution, these Hagans immigrated with many other Catholic families of southern Maryland to central Kentucky and settled mainly in southern Nelson Co. and the surrounding areas of Washington and Marion Co. From there some migrated further to western Kentucky and Perry Co. MO and beyond.

Since my mother's maiden name is also Hagan, I became interested in larger problem, especially the sorting out of the families who moved to Nelson, Marion, and Washington Counties during the late 1700's and early 1800's. Anyone who has looked carefully at the problems realizes that there is not quite enough information to sort things out properly. By the time of the fourth and fifth generations, the repetition of common names such as James and Elizabeth, makes it difficult to keep people straight. Wills were not drawn up, and church records do not begin in earnest until the early 1820's. The obstacles make the project interesting, and, despite the lacunae, there is much information around. For the most part, the Hagans were farmers, and the information about them is found mainly in wills, deeds, and marriage records. They were basically a Catholic family, and where church records exists, baptisms and marriage records elucidate their growing families.

The information in this manuscript depends heavily on the earlier work especially of Mrs. Martha Pikell, Mrs. Mary Jo Maguire, and Br. Thomas Spalding. Mrs. Pikell produced a typescript which summarizes her information on the Hagan family, but it is only a synopsis of her work. She makes reference in a letter to a file in the public library in Kansas City, KS, but I have not seen that file. Mrs. Maguire has worked particularly on the Ignatius line, but she has spent much energy and time on every aspect of this complex family. Br. Thomas has collected their work along with his into a file that traces the history of their conjectures and discoveries.

To this foundation, I have added my own work along with the more recent research of others. I have tried to note carefully those contributions, especially Mrs. Cecilia Keeling, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Pauline Jones, Mr. Bert Hagan, Mr. Jessie Hagan, and Mr. Gerald Thompson among others.

As with any family history which focuses on a single family name, the research tends to give prominence to the men while the women are lost in other families. Still effort is being made to elucidate those lines in order to understand the full reach of this family, for they carry the Hagan tradition as much as those who bear the name of Hagan.

Some of the information gathered lists family relationships without providing the evidence to prove the relationship. This manuscript lists that unproved information because the genealogists listed above have proved their own worth. Still unsubstantiated relationships should be used as clues rather than as evidence. My own conjectures are marked with question marks. In the past, some conjectures have proved true; some have proved false. I would be happy to have any information that establishes the facts whatever it might be. I would also be glad to add any information on the Hagan family up to 1850, more or less. I have used that date more or less as a cut off because the U.S. census of that year begins to list everyone in a household by name. As a result, it becomes much easier to trace families. Also by 1850, the Thomas Hagan family has already grown to immense size.

Many of the children of Ignatius Hagan, the Planter, moved on to Missouri, and these families have been traced by in Maryland Catholics on the Frontier. This document provides enough information to show the link but does not reproduce that monumental work.

System of Designation: I have followed the system begun by Tim O'Rourke in his Maryland Catholics on the Frontier. Thomas Hagan, the immigrant, is designated as "A"; his children as AA, AB, AC, etc. The third generation has three letters, the fourth has four letters, and so on. To avoid clogging the text with more and more letters, I have given the full citation only at the beginning of a new family; for example:

A. Thomas
AA. William

AAA. John m Mary

Children:

A. Monica m John Boarman
B. Joseph

Monica's full letters would be "AAAA," and Joseph's "AAAB" indicating that they are the fourth generation. I have indexed all the women under both their maiden name and their married name(s). Thus Monica can be found in the index both as "Monica Hagan" (one of several) and as "Monica Boarman." However, the indexing system of WordPerfect 5.1 is foolproof; still the index should be helpful.

Abbreviations: The most prevalent is MP = "Martha Pikell." The other is MJM or just "Maguire" which refers to Mary Jo Maguire. BTS refers to the file of Br. Thomas Spalding, CFX which I received from Mr. Jessie Hagan.

Since the computer makes it easy to run new editions, I shall be updating the material in the future and would appreciate any new information.

THOMAS HAGAN, THE IMMIGRANT

Most of the Hagan families of Maryland and Kentucky trace their family lines back to the immigrant Thomas Hagan who arrived in Maryland in 1662. The following is a "biography" by Martha Pikell who was one of the foremost authorities on the Hagan family. As far as I know, this summary exists only in typescript and was never published:

Thomas Hagan, the immigrant, was born about 1645, giving his age in a deposition of 1715 as "Seventy odd Yeares" (Patents 3:235). He arrived in the late summer of 1662 as a servant of John Meekes. He may have come by way of Barbados.

The first record concerning him was an oath he took in the October Court of Charles Co., MD to the effect that a consignment of sugar from the freight of John Meekes out of Barbados into Virginia had been delivered to a certain resident of Maryland (MD Archives, LIII, 400). When Meekes attempted to extend Hagan's time of service shortly after their arrival in Maryland, the new indenture, dated 12 Aug 1662, was invalidated as contrary to a law of the Assembly, "whereupon the sayd Meekes in open Court declared him to bee a free man" (MD Archives LIII, 400-401). In August 1665, Thomas Hogan sought a warrant against James Lindsey for an unspecified transgression but in November the suit was dropped (MD Archives, LIII, 595, 608).

It was not until 1670 that Thomas Hagan demanded 50 acres for his time of service (Patents 12:594). On June 9 of that year 100 acres called "Newcastle" was surveyed for him and George Akeeth (Aisquith) in Newton Hundred, St. Mary's County (Rent rolls). About the same time, he married. The surname of his wife Mary is not known. [In another place, Mrs. Pikell conjectures that it might have been Aisquith on the basis of some land settlements involving Mary Hagan and the Aisquith family.] In August 1672, a tract of 150 acres called Correct Measure (Cadock Measure) was surveyed for him in the same hundred (Rent Rolls).

He soon moved back to Charles Co. where in 1678 a tract called "St. James" was surveyed for him. Originally 200 acres, it was resurveyed in 1714 for 317 acres. In 1695 "Good Intent" containing 650 acres was also surveyed for him, and in 170? a tract called "Clare" was resurveyed for 235 acres and patented to him in 1710. From Major William Boarman, he also purchased portions of "Content" and "Lanternam" - 140 acres in all (Deeds: D #2:54) and will of Major Boarman. by the time of his death, this former servant had acquired through his own industry over 1,500 acres of land. The Charles County holdings lay in Bryantown Hundred, in a northern part of the county known as "Zachia Swamp."

Thomas Hagan made his will on 20 March 1714 (1715 O.S.) to his wife, Mary, he left the tract on which he lived, "St. James, and two parcels of land purchased from Major Boarman, which was to go to his son, William, at her death. To his son, James, he left 350 acres of "Good Intent" and to his son, Ignatius, he left 200 acres of "Good Intent" and 65 acres acquired from Major Boarman an confirmed in the latter's will.

To his daughters, Sarah Edelen, Charity Green, Ann Smith, and Elizabeth Clarkson, he bequeathed a token ten shillings each, indicating he had already provided for them. All of his personal estate he bequeathed to his wife, Mary and to his son, William, at her decease. The Will was proved in court 21 Feb 1715/6 by William Boarman, Jr., John Gates, and Joseph Gates (Chas. Co. Liber 14:213).

Thomas Hagan was still living in the fall of 1715, however, when as Thomas Hagan, planter, he submitted a deposition concerning the boundaries of "Lanternam" which adjoined the property of Richard Edelen (Patents: 3:235).

The inventory of his estate was taken by John Dent and William Boarman on 10 Mar 1715/6. It showed a personal estate worth £173-16-9 and included three slaves, 24 head of cattle, 36 hogs, and three horses. James and Thomas signed as "highest of kin" (Chas. Co. Inv. 1677-1717, f. 418). In all probability Thomas Hagan was wealthier than the Inventory indicates having already giving much of his personal property to his children. A final settlement was made 13 Jun 1717 by Mary Hagan, the Executrix. It included a disbursement of 500 lbs. of tobacco for the funeral sermon. delivered unnamed (Chas. co. Accts. 1708-1738, f. 126).

The will of the widow, Mary Hagan was drawn 8 Apr 1721 and proved on 4 Feb 1626 (1727 USA). She left everything to her son, William (Chas. Co. Wills, 19:26-27).

² The full court proceedings are found in the Charles County, Maryland Proceedings of 1662 Liber B. page 179-181, in Maryland Archives, LIII. As best I can determine, John Meekes transported Thomas Hagan (spelled Hogen, Howgin, Hogin) into the colony of Maryland on a ship named the "Catch." Meeks and Thomas Hagan then entered into another indenture on 12 Aug 1662 for two more years of service. Seemingly, Thomas Hagan then found out that a master could not renew and indenture and therefore with the help of his attorney John Waltom! brought the matter before the court. Meeks, being informed of the law of the colony, sets Thomas Hagan free in court. The year is either 1662 or 1663. I cannot tell from the zerox pages before me.

⁴ Maryland Calendar of Wills, vol. VI, p 5: Charles Co.; 8 Apr 1721, 4 Feb 1726: "To Son William, Ex., entire estate." Test. Thomas Webster, Thomas Jameson. L 19, f 26.

Anna Hamilton says that Mary's maiden name was Boarman, but she gives not a reference. I find this hard to believe. Martha Pikell wonders whether Mary "were a 'Aisquith' as [Thomas Hagan] and George Akeeth (sic) bought land; then in 1685 she and others sold land to George Glover. I've though perhaps he might be one of her family, and they were clearing up an estate, but I have never found anything about him." From a letter to Mrs. Florence T. Lovejoy, 28 Mar 1981.

⁶ A full account of the Edelen family is given Henry Wright Newman in Charles County Gentry, pp 123ff. Cf. also Genealogical History of Our Ancestors, compiled by Wm. Kenneth Rutherford and Anna Clay (Zimmerman) Rutherford, vol. 2, revised edition, privately published 1977, p 36.

Richard Edelen is the son of Richard Edelen Sr. (c1635-1694/5) and Elizabeth Banton, who married on 23 Oct 1663, London, England and, being Catholics, emigrated to Maryland in 1664-65. Richard Jr. (c1671-1760) married first Sarah Hagan who is thought to be mother of most of his children since she died after 1727. Then he married Ann Neale, d/o Raphael Neale and finally Anne d/o Ignatius & Sophia (Beedle) Craycroft. Richard Jr.'s children are as follows:

- a. Richard m Margaret Neale
- b. Mary m Benjamine Neale
- c. Philis m Jane Gardiner

⁷ Francis Green was the son of Leonard and Prudence (Cooper) Green; Leonard was s/o Francis and Elizabeth Green, and Francis was s/o Governor Thomas and Winifred Green. Cf. Mad Semmes and Kindred Families, 156-157, 165. Chchildren:

From pms File: Francis Green sold 200A of "Green's Inheritance" 19 Apr 1759; no wife waived dower. His will probated 20 Apr 1758 bequeathed to daughter thence to Robert Doyne, nephew. In case his wife died, then his sister, Mary Livers and Robert Doyne are to be Clothilda's guardians.

⁸ I believe that following will from Baldwin II;61 (Liber 4, fol. 96) is the correct family:

Will of Jno. Smith, Charles County, 13 Apr 1716 - 16 Nov 1710.

To son Jno. and hrs dwelling plantation, ---, 300 A., and personalty after decease of testator's wife.

Thomas Hagan's will is found in Liber 14 pages 213-214, dated 29 Mar 1714, and probated 2 Feb 1716. An inventory of his estate was taken on 16 Mar 1715; Charles Co. Liber XIV 213; inventory Chas. Co. Accts 1708-1738, f 126. Liber 14, ff 213-214 .

NOTE: The will of Thomas Hagan is clearly recorded in the will book as that of "Thomas Hagoe." The recorder mistook "an" for "oe." The will is clearly that of Thomas Hagan because the land given to his sons appears in their wills where they are clearly named "Hagan."

¹⁴ George A. Martin give 1757 as the date of their marriage, Charles Co. Maryland Marriage Records (Washington DC, n.d.), but since all the marriage records were destroyed for this period and he has relied on other documents, I believe the only conclusion which can be drawn is that they were married by 1757.

John and Elizabeth (Hussey) Hanson had four children: John (m Elizabeth Massey), Elizabeth (m Leonard Wheeler), Mary (m Wm Clements) and Eleanor who married William Hagan.

The most famous of the family was the John Hanson son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Story) Hanson: b 13 Apr 1721, d 22 Nov 1783. He served as president of the Continental Congress at the end of the Revolutionary war and received Washington after the surrender of Cornwallis. His state is in statuary hall in the US Capitol. This John Hanson married Jane Contee of Prince George Co. Their son and grandson, both called Alexander Contee Hanson, are famous in their own right.

The first letter of 27 Jun 1773 was posted from Liege by Elizabeth Clare and Monica Clare and thanks Fr. John Bolton, SJ, for news of their father's death. They also say: "Please to tell all friends that our Sr. Therese at paris is well and desire[s] to be kindly remembered to them all in particular. She says she does not think of writing this year. For our Sr. [Marianne] at Cambray we have not heard from her of some time, but hope she is well.

The second letter, dated 11 Feb 1783, is also written by Elizabeth Clare and Monica Clare but this time "from Rouen." It mentions the death of their brother who would be John. Mostly the letter deals with their niece Monica and the possibility of her religious vocation. They also mention other Maryland women, seemingly, who are members of their community: Sister Edelin, "our Dispensere," and Sister Spalding who "is now Rev. Mother Vicaris." mentions the death of their brother [i.e. John].

The third letter signed only by Monica 10 June 1785 with no place name given. She speaks of her nephew Joseph who is thinking of a religious vocation. Niece Monica has decided against a religious vocation by this time.

years as Subprioress

²¹ Date of marriage given by George A. Martin, Charles Co. Maryland Marriage Records (Washington DC, n.d.). All records before 1865 were destroyed by fire; the date is taken from other records.

In the letters she mentions her "Bro. Mills" her neice and godchild Mary Ann Teresa Mills, "Bro. William," neices "[S?]ally Garner & her Str. M. Ann T. Mills," her "Str. patty," Str. Ally and Brother Coomes, "Prioress Mo. Mary Mag Johnson," Bro. Joseph, Str Eliz. Clare, Str. Monica, Str. Marianne at Cambray.

At one point, she talks about here monastery: "I must tell you Sir that I think if I had been to chouse of all the convents in France I could not have found any one so much to my great satisfaction as this wch I am in. The great union & charity which [are] found in the community I bless almighty God still reigns more & more in our house. We can take no one to pension with us whoever, very little going to ye grates & many other things wch I omitt mentioning not knowing what hands my letter may fall into before it arrives to yours." (p 78)

From the "Notes and Obituaries" of the English Benedictines at Paris and now Colwich, Catholic Record Society, vol. IX, 1911, no. 11, p 406. "No. XC. 1816. Anno Domini 1816 October 28th Departed this life our dear religious sister. Rev^d Mother Teresa Hagan of the sacred hearts of Jesus & Mary--Subprioress and Jubilarian. This dear mother was a Native of Maryland.

"She exercised the office of Subprioress during twenty or thirty years, and with great zeal in every way that her weak health enabled her to do. She was a most venerable saintly Religious, exact to the very moment in all her duties; her spirit of Prayer, and constant union of her soul with God, was the divine source from which she drew all her strength, hence she was always serene, and the bright example of every virtue. She exercised the Office of Mistress of Juniors for many years until her happy death which took place in the 80th year of her Age. Requiescat in Pace."

Professed 1663, Dame Louisa, OSB, a Benedictine nun of Combrai; imprisoned at Compiègne during the French Revolution
d 6 Jun 1811, Abbots Salford, Warwickshire, England.

²³ The information about Dame Louisa (Marianne) Hagan, OSB is found in Henry Norbert Hirt, OSB, Obit Book of English Benedictines 1600-1912, (Edinburg 1913). I do not know how to explain the fact that there seem to be two daughters named Mary Ann/Marianne. Be that as it may, Fr. John Hunter, S.J., the Jesuit superior in Maryland, introduces Marianne to the prioress at Cambray as "Sister to her at ye Benedictines at Paris', i.e. Theresa; Thomas Hughes, SJ, "Educational Convoys to Europe in the Olden Times," American Ecclesiastical Review 29 (1903) 24-39, esp. p 30. Also the letters from Elizabeth Clare and Monica Clare and from Theresa clearly name "Marianne" as "my/our sister at Combray" (p 72) and "Str. Marianne has always had good health...accept [sc. except]...on her entry to France, small pox, &c." (p 81) These letters also speak of the Mills [sic] as their relatives, cf. above.

For the genealogy of the Dyer Family, see: Across the Years in Prince George County, [copy in Owensboro Library], pp 304-311: The Family of Patrick Dyer:

The 1820 Census of Nelson Co. shows two Robert Hagans; because of damage to the rolls, the first shows only 1 female 16-18 yrs old, and one slave; presumably there must have been a man about the same age as the woman. In the record for second Robert, the list of females is also damaged; still it shows: males: 1 26-45, 2 16-26, 1 16-18, 1 10-16, 5 less than 10; females: 1 26-45, ? 16-26, ? 10-16, 1 less than 10, and 14 slaves. The record for the 1830 census continues to show only two Roberts, seemingly the same two. The second shows: 1 male 50-60, 1 male 15-20, 2m 10-15, 2 m 5-10, 1 m less than five; in the second row which records females and free blacks, it shows 1 person 50-60, 2 people 15-20. The Tax Lists of 1820 and 1825 list two Roberts. One is listed with Bazell and Walter, both of whom are located on Fromans Creek. The second Robert has two plots, 241 A. (2nd rate) and 230 A. (3rd rate) located on the Beech Fork and another plot of 1000 A. (3rd rate) in Pendleton Co. on Lick Creek.

⁴⁸ 1850 Census of Larue Co lists 765-765, George W. Hagan as 40, born in MD with M.A. 35, George 16, William (B) 14, Ann 12, Robert 10, C (Christine) 8, SE 6f, Charles 4.

⁶⁵ Hardin Co. Cemeteries, p 52, St. James Cemetery, the reference gives the dates and designates her as the wife of James H.

⁶⁶ Mary Bell Warren is the d/o Alfred A Warren (4 Jan 1821 - 22 Sep 1898) and Jane Frances Montgomery (28 Nov 1822 - 3 Oct 1862); both are buried in St. John's Catholic Cemetary, Hardin Co. KY. Alfred A is the s/o Charles and Monica Warren who settled in Nelson Co.

Jane Frances is the d/o Thomas Francis Montgomery and Clotilda Wathen. Clotilda is the daughter of Raphael Wathen and Margaret Modesta Coomes, d/o Francis Coomes, revolutionary soldier (private in VA) and Charity Woods; cf. Webb's A Centenary of Kentucky Catholic History, 425-428.

Thomas Francis Montgomery is the s/o Thomas Montgomery, s/o James and Mary Montgomery, s/o Peter Montgomery who was born in France in 1682 and naturalized in MD in 1727. The information on the Montgomery Family comes from a file in the Owensboro Library by Nell Montgomery Griffith sent to Dorothy B. Stewart. Mary Bell Warren's first cousin, George Montgomery, was bishop of Los Angeles and Coadjutor of San Francisco around the turn of the century.

Raphael Wathen is the s/o of John Baptist and Henrietta (Riney) Wathen. John Baptist is the s/o Ignatius and Susannah (Hawkins) Wathen. Ignatius is the s/o of John Wathen and Susan Ann Hudson. John is the s/o of John and Mary (Mullet) Wathen. John, who arrived in MD in 1645, was s/o of Sir Charles Wathen of Bristol, England. The information on the Wathen Family is taken from John W. Hansbrough's The History and Genealogy of the Hansborough - Hansbrough Family (1981) 218-226; a copy can be found in the Louisville Public Library. As his primary source, he cites Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth (King) Metzclaff. Henrietta Riney is the Sister oZechariah Riney who was Abraham Lincoln's first teach at Knob Creek between Hodgenville and New Haven, KY.

⁸¹ James Hagan made a deposition on "this last day of Nov. anno Dmi 1714" concerning a tract of 600 acres touching good Intent [a tract belong to James according to the deposition of Thomas Hagan made on the same day; cf. Thomas (AD). Page 99 [of what?]

James Hagan made a deposition on Mar 14, 1737, "aged sixty-six years or thereabouts who being sworn on the Holy Evangelists declares that Mr. Richard Edelen about forty years ago then Surveyor of Charles County told him that an old Chestnut Tree (now down) which this Deponent stands by was the Second bound tree of a tract of land called Wardle. Martha Pikell gives Wright as the maiden name of Rebecca who married John Lowe and states that she married secondly Thomas Mudd II. Pikell MSS, p 2. Also she says: Major John Lowe was Major of the colonial Troops of St. Mary's Co. His will was dated 1698 and probated 1701; it names his wife Rebecca, his son, John, and his daughters Elizabeth, Alie, Eleanor, and Rebecca (liber 21:208)

¹⁰³ "James of Ignatius" is listed 1778 Census of Md, Chas. Co. Bryantown Hundred; also in 1790 Census of Chas Co.: males, 1 16+, 1 16-; females 3. A second "James" is also listed in 1778 census; who is he?

The 1800 "Census" of Ky lists three James Hagan's plus James A(quilla?) in Nelson Co. Martha Pikell gathered the following information on a James living on Froman Creek:

Deed Book 6, 216: 1 Aug 1803!, Nelson Co., Ky: Peter Hahn and Peggy, his wife to Mary Hagan, widow; Julian and Mary Magdalen Hagan, heirs to James Hagan, dec'd, for £50, current money, for 40 A. of land in Nelson Co on the waters of Froman Creek, being part of tract where sd Hahn now lives.

Inventory of James Hagan: $107.80, appraisers took oath 19 Nov 1813!; it was recorded 19 Dec 1814. Mrs. Pikell concludes that "since we have no record of any other James dying there in 1800-1820 period, this would refer to Mary's husband." James is on the Nelson Co. tax lists from 1796 to 1801, and then Mary in 1802, 1813 to 1815 with 40 A., but no land in 1816, and she does not appear on the rolls at all in 1817. Since nothing indicates she sold the land, one can suppose that when Mary Magdalen married Aquilla (son of Basil, who had property on the east side of Froman Creek), he farmed the land. From a letter by Martha S. Pikell to Celia Keeling.

In the 1790 Census of Prince George Co. a Mary Hagan is listed with 3 females in her house and no one else.

¹⁰⁵ Cf. Martha Pikell's work on the Blandford family in the Blandford file of the Nelson Co. Library. From another note in BTS file by Mrs. Pikell: Ann Hagan, d/o Ignatius, Will 1765, may also have been a Blandford's wife, Thomas, as she is so listed in Will Liber 33, f 421-422, Chas. Co. Thomas Blandford who died in Chas. Co, prior to 4 Mar 1793 left a wife Ann, so named in Chas. Co. Land Records L #4, f 45-47. This Thomas and Ann Blandford are parents of Rebecca who married Wm Wight and went to Wash. Co. c 1800. He and his sister Monica Hagan were children of John Blandford who married twice: Rebecca ---- who was alive in 1754 and 2nd wife was Elizabeth ---- whom many think was also a Hagan since they had a son named Hagan Blandford.

¹⁰⁶ For the family of Joseph Hagan, see Tim O'Rourke, Maryland Catholics on the Frontier, pp 549ff. He swore allegiance in Chas. Co. 1778. He is perhaps the Joseph listed in the 1783 of Chas. Co. Dist. 3 with 8 white inhabitants. In 1792 he disposed of his property and migrated to Nelson Co. By 1803 he had moved to the Spanish dominion west of the Mississippi where he received a land grant of 640 acres.

Presumably he is the "Joseph Hagan" listed in the 1790 Census of Prince George Co. MD with 4 males over 16, 3 males under 16, 4 females, and 5 slaves. Electious is listed separately with 2 males over 16 and one slave. Seemingly the other male is a brother, perhaps Thomas who is listed with Electious in the tax rolls of Nelson Co. KY. This would give Joseph eight sons and three daughters.

¹⁰⁷ For the Hagans who migrate to Perry Co., Missouri, cf.. Tim O'Rourke's Maryland Catholics on the Frontier for a complete accounting.

¹⁰⁸ According to the 1850 Census, Quiller Hagan was 62 farmer, $1,080 with R. 27 f. L. 25f, and Pius 18m.

¹⁰⁹ The tax rolls of 1793, Nelson Co. lists a Thomas Hagan, and the rolls of 1795 show a Thomas living on Froman Creek owning 100 A. This is the same location as Electious.

¹¹¹ O'Rourke, MD Catholics on the Frontier, 573.

¹³⁸ The Deposition of Francis Montgomery aged forty-three years or thereabouts who being sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God declares that in the year 1733 he this Deponent came with Thomas Hagan, James Hagan and Ignatius Hagan who was then running out James Hagans Land and they came to the oak mentioned in Bowling Speaks Deposition above and that Thomas Hagan Clapping his Hand upon the said Tree said that it was a bounded tree of James Hagans land and that he the said Thomas Hagan Either Bounded it himself or saw it Bounded ... "

"16 Jan 1753: The Deposition of John Hagan aged Twenty Six years or thereabouts who being sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God Declares That at the same time mentioned in Patrick Glaze's Deposition above [1744] he the Deponent was Present and in Company with James Hagan who Came down[?] to a fork of a Branch Called Bryans Branch by which he now stands and that the said James Hagan told this Deponent somewhere hereabouts stood a Gum Tree which was a Bound Tree both of his Land and also of Thomas Bryans Land and further this Deponent saith not. ¹⁴⁰ In the book 1790 Census of VA, John Hagan of Fairfax Co. VA, appears on the tax lists of 1782 with 7 whites

1785 with 5 whites, 2 dwellings, 1 other building.

Henry Hagan is also listed in 1782 with 3 whites and 1 black.

In the 1787 Census of VA, Charles and Francis Hagan appear for Fairfax Co. They could be the reason that John's household goes from seven to five in 1782 and 1785, and therefore his sons. Francis, who had not married by 1818, appears on the 1810 Census of VA with two women: one 26-45 and the other 45 plus. Perhaps they are sisters who did not marry. There are no Hagan wills in Fairfax Co. through 1791 and no Hagan marriages in Fairfax Co. 1742-1853.

¹⁴¹ Pension application: S 36007, made 1 Apr 1818. He enlisted for two years in Capt John Fitzgerald's Co, the third regiment of VA; then reenlisted in Major Wm. Washington's corp of light dragoons for three years. In 1818: "He has no family (never having married) connection that he knows of having survived all the other members of his family except possibly a brother who removed about 20 years ago to the western country. Whether he is still alive he does not know. He also was a revolutionary soldier." Petitioner was 64 years old 1 Apr 1818. Petition was Made in the District of Columbia and granted there at $8 per month.

Francis Hagin (Hagan) VA Served as corporal in the 3rd Continental Line

Francis Hagin VA Served in the Fourth Light Dragon

¹⁴² In the book 1787 Census of VA, Francis Hagan appears on p 1055, the same page as Charles, with 00010. On the 1810 Census of VA, there are two entries for Francis Hagan

1810 Census Hagin, Francis, #200 30001 02110 00

1810 Census Haggin, Francis, #200 00001 00011 18

Which is correct or are they both correct? The second would make some sense: brother and two sisters.

¹⁴³ In the book 1787 Census of VA, Charles Hagan is listed in Fairfax Co with 00012 on p 1055.

¹⁴⁴ In his petition of 22 Oct 1830, he says that he sold land in Nelson Co. KY in 1817.

¹⁴⁷ Martha Pikell says that some say he went to Maine. [On what basis?] The other theory states that he married Margaret Blanford, d/o Thos. and Sarah Blanford who was born c1725. She received 340 A "The Widow's Trouble" in her father's will of 1749 which lists her as Margaret Hagan (P Geo Co. Liber 27 f. 13-15, Will of Thomas Blandford). Charles Blandford also names Margaret Hagan as sister in his will of 1782 in Chas. Co. and leaves her one-half A of "Ruden" out of son Thomas' 100A "where she now lives". Also named in the will is daughter Priscilla Hagan, presumably his daughter.

Pr. Geo., 1756, JRM 2:555. Margaret sells to Nicholas Blacklock.

Pr. Geo., 1756, NN:462. Thomas sells "Widow's Trouble" Thomas sells to Thomas. [Is this right?]

Pr. Geo., 1756, NN:438. Thomas buys from ---- Mitchell.

Pr. Geo., 1756, NN:458. "stray horse"

Pr. Geo., 1757, NN:502. Thomas & Margaret Hagan sell all lands and dwellings on "Widow's Trouble," devised by Thos. Blanford to his daughter, to Rev. Evers ----

Pr. Geo., 1757, NN:505. Thomas Hagan sells to James and Ignatius Hagan three negroes.

Frederick Co. Deeds, 1758, F 576, Thomas Hagan with wife Margaret buys land from Richard Beal, "Fat Oxen." In the same county and year, F 681, he with wife Margaret sells/buys? something to/from Richard Henderson.

In the PMS file, it is sometimes suggested that Margaret was the first wife of Thomas of Ignatius (ACC) who settled in Prince George Co. However, Thomas Hagan of Ignatius married Grace Gwinn, and they were married by 1768 according to a deed. Therefore Margaret could not have been his first wife because she was still alive in 1782 when she receives a half acre from her brother Charles (cf. above.)

ADA. Thomas¹⁵⁵ Thomas is mentioned in father's (1743) and his mother's will (1758); cf. above m seemingly Margaret Blandford, d/o Thomas & Sarah Blandford, II¹⁵⁶
Thomas and Margaret moved to Frederick Co.¹⁵⁷

¹⁵⁵ Martha Pikell says that some say he went to Maine. [On what basis?] The other theory states that he married Margaret Blandford, d/o Thos. and Sarah Blandford who was born c1725. She received 340 A "The Widow's Trouble" in her father's will of 1749 which lists her as Margaret Hagan (P Geo Co. Liber 27 f. 13-15, Will of Thomas Blandford). Charles Blandford also names Margaret Hagan as sister in his will of 1782 in Chas. Co. and leaves her one-half A of "Ruden" out of son Thomas' 100A "where she now lives". Also named in the will is daughter Priscilla Hagan, presumably his daughter.

Pr. Geo., 1756, JRM 2:555. Margaret sells to Nicholas Blacklock.

Pr. Geo., 1756, NN:462. Thomas sells "Widow's Trouble" Thomas sells to Thomas. [Is this right?]

Pr. Geo., 1756, NN:438. Thomas buys from ----- Mitchell.

Pr. Geo., 1756, NN:458. "stray horse"

Pr. Geo., 1757, NN:502. Thomas & Margaret Hagan sell all lands and dwellings on "Widow's Trouble," devised by Thos. Blandford to his daughter, to Rev. Evers -----

Pr. Geo., 1757, NN:505. Thomas Hagan sells to James and Ignatius Hagan three negroes.

Frederick Co. Deeds, 1758, F 576, Thomas Hagan with wife Margaret buys land from Richard Beal, "Fat Oxen." In the same county and year, F 681, he with wife Margaret sells/buys? something to/from Richard Henderson.

In the PMS file, it is sometimes suggested that Margaret was the first wife of Thomas of Ignatius (ACC) who settled in Prince George Co. However, Thomas Hagan of Ignatius married Grace Gwinn, and they were married by 1768 according to a deed. Therefore Margaret could not have been his first wife because she was still alive in 1782 when she receives a half acre from her brother Charles (cf... above.)

¹⁵⁶ Thomas Blandford, II died testate in Prince Geo. Co. MD 14 Jun 1749 - 7 Aug 1749. He married m Sarah Beaven, d/o Charles Beaven and Mary Marsham. In his will, Thomas Blandford II names Charles, oldest son who receive "Ryden," "Sneaking Point" and part of "Hickory Thickett" (all of the land in Charles Co.), son John, daughters Tabitha Mitchell, Margaret Hagan, Martha Clarkson, Mary Edelen, Sarah Clarkson, and grandson Philip Edelen. Wills, Liber 27, folio 13; Newman, Chas. Co. Gentry, 142-143.

¹⁵⁷ In 1758, Thomas Hagan and wife Margaret bought 114 acres from Richard Beal "Fat Oxen" Deed Book F567, and in the same year Thomas and Margaret sold to Richard Henderson, F681, Frederick Co. MD.

¹⁵⁸ In 1794, there are three men named Ignatius, on with two sons 16-21. In 1795 there are three men named Ignatius in the Nelson Co. Tax lists, all listed as the only male above 16 years of age; one is designated as the son of Joseph. The other two are Ignatius Sr. and Jr. as indicated in the lists for 1793. In 1796 there are only two men named Ignatius. I think Ignatius Sr. dies 1795-1796. As a result the marriage bonds of daughters Sarah and Catherine have the names of Hezekiah as brother, and Ann as mother on them.

¹⁶⁰ In 1785 Ignatius Hagan sells to Bennet Hagan horses, cows, furniture; Bennett releases him from rent. Wit. by Walter Hagan. Frederick Co., MD, Deed Book 5:289.

¹⁶¹ Nelson County VA Tax Lists 1785-1791 (in Nelson Co. Library) lists Ignatius Sr with 4 taxable items together with Ignatius Jr, - 0, Hasakiah -0, and Walter - 0 for the year 1791 (p 124). Ignatius Sr. & Jr. are also listed for 1789 (as Heagan another spelling!) and 1790 (p 99). I take this as an indication that at least Hezekiah is the son of Ignatius, Sr. This would make Sarah a daughter since Hezekiah signs her marriage bond as brother, cf... below. Catherine also appears; cf... below.

In 1794, the Ignatius Hagan with 170 acres on Pottinger's Creek has two sons between 16 and 21. Hezekiah does not appear on the rolls for that year, although he does appear on the VA rolls for 1791. He reappears for the first time since 1791 in 1795. Caleb whom I believe to be the other son does not appear on the tax rolls until 1799 and in 1803 he appears with a hundred acres on Pottinger's Creek.

As for the Walter who is listed with Ignatius Sr in the 1791 Census, he appears on the tax rolls through 1820, and in 1815 is listed finally with land: 85 acres on Froman's Creek in the northern part of the county. This Walter is the son of the widow Mary Hagan, but I do not know the name of her husband. He does not marry until 1813, and theoretically he could be another Walter, but no more than one Walter appears on any of the tax records which I have collected. Perhaps he is Walter, Jr. Cf... the listing among Other Hagans.

¹⁶² I include Catherine as a daughter of Ignatius Sr because he dies about 1795 (the last year in which the tax lists give three Ignatius Hagans), and therefore, Ann, his wife, would be listed on the bond; also John B. Blandford is involved in Hezekiah's marriage. Who is John W. Hagan? It is possible that they could be children of Benet. Or does the "W" stand for "Walter"?

Nelson Co. Deed Book 6:630. John B. Blandford and wife "Cathy" sell to John Robinson land on Simpson Creek, 2 Feb 1808.

E? Caleb	dsp c1809 ¹⁶³ ; included here because he swears surety for Catherine.

¹⁶⁹ The information for the family of Nancy Hagan and William Smith Jarboe is taken mainly from The Jarboe Family, vol. 2 JT-6. Maguire says that she was the daughter of Ignatius and Anastasia (Hamilton) Hagan, he being the son of Ignatius who joined the Maryland Colonization League and that they lived on the 170 A tract belonging to Nancy's father, Ignatius located on the middle fork of the Pottinger's Creek in both Washington and Nelson Counties.

The Marriage bond of also names Ignatius as father of Ann (Nancy).

Also from the genealogy of the Thomas Hill Family, p 8: Wm Smith Jarboe, 12 Jan 1793 - 15 July 1868, was the son of John Thomas Jarboe and Dorothy Hill. "Dolly" was the daughter of Thomas Hill and Rebecca Miles (m 13 Nov 1753). Rebecca had a brother named Philip who accompanied Thomas Hill to KY, but the Miles father is not known although they seem kin to Nicholas father of Milly Miles. Cf. information on the Miles family. A history of the early Jarboes can be found in History of Carrollton Manor, Frederick Co. MD, by William Jarboe Grove, 1922 as well as in the three volumes on the Jarboes by Mary Jo Maguire.

¹⁷⁰ Hezekiah appears in the 1810 US Census as a single man without wife or family. Seemingly, therefore, his first wife Nancy Clark died early on. On 17 Apr 1815, Fr. ST Badin blessed Hezekiah's second marriage to Eleanor Bryan. In the 1830 US Census of Nelson County, "Hez" is listed between 50-60 years old with presumably his wife 40-50 yrs. old, and four children: two boys between 10-15 yrs old and two girls, one under five and one 5-10 yrs old. Horace would have been about 13 years old in 1830. Hezekiah does not appear in 1840 census of Nelson County; did he move to Marion County during that time?

¹⁷¹ From 1850 Census of Marion Co and the file of Gerald Thompson. Both he and MS Pikell thinks perhaps a son of Hezekiah.

¹⁷² 1850 Census of Marion Co., KY shows Horrace, 33, farmer with Edith 30; Eliza A 13; Sarah A 10; John T 8; James 6; William 4; Charles 3; Netta 2f; Thomas 3/12.

From Hamilton's genealogy of Thomas Clarke Hagan; no date is given.

Tax Lists of Nelson Co. 1793: Walter Hagan is listed between Edward and Ignatius Hagan. He is credited only with one white male over 21 and nothing else. In the 1795 and 1796 lists, he also has one horse.

¹⁷⁷ Who was Joseph Hagan, b 19 Jan 1793; bapt St. Mary's Bryantown, MD, s/o Walter and Teresa (Burch) Hagan? From Maguire Notes: Baptismal Record names parents as Walter Hagan and Theresa Burch.

¹⁷⁸ 1778 Census of Md, Chas. Co. Bryan Town Hundred lists "Benjamin." 1790 Census of Chas. Co. lists two Benjamins, one designated by Newport.

Benjamin Hagan: 4m +16, 3m -16, 5 females, slaves 1.

Benjamin of Newport: 1m +16, 2m -16, 4 females, no slaves.

In the 1795 tax rolls of Nelson Co., a Benjamin Hagan paid taxes on 300 acres on Mar 13 along with Edward Hagan and Benedict Hagan. The other Hagans in the southern part of the county paid on Mar 21.

Beginning with the 1800 tax rolls, Benjamin Hagan's property is listed as levy free without a male over 21 years of age up through at least 1805. The size of the property drops from 300A on Pottinger in 1795 to 250 in 1800, to 225 in 1801, to 200 in 1802-1805.

¹⁸¹ James Hagan dated his will 7 Dec 1775, and it was probated 4 Oct 1776. Cf. Liber 11, f 189-191 #523, Frederick Co. Md. Also listed by Magruder in Magruder's Maryland Colonial Abstracts 1772-1777: Seventh day of December in the year of one-thousand seventy-five. Witnessed by J. Reppurn and John Reppurn Jr.

¹⁸³ Br. Thomas Spalding, CFX has done the research on the Johnson Family. Monica (Johnson) Hagan was the daughter of John Johnson (d 1766 W Prince George Co) and Susanna Semmes. He was the son John Johnson (d 1710 Pr Geo Co.), who seemingly was the immigrant. Susanna was the daughter of James Semmes (1670-1727) and Mary Goodrick (13 Mar 1674 - 1727); they married in 1701. It was the second of her three marriages: first to ---- Anderson and third to John Speakes. James Semmes was the son of Marmaduke and Fortuna Semmes. Marmaduke immigrated by 1662 and died in Charles Co. in 1693. Fortuna was the widow of a Medford. Mary Goodrick was the daughter of Robert, the son of George who died in 1673, Charles Co.

From Anna Hamilton, Thomas Clarke Hagan, p. 8.

Thomas Elder is the son of William and Sabina (Wickham) Elder. His mother was the daughter of Nathaniel Wickham. His father was the eldest son born in 1729 to William and Ann (Wheeler) Elder. Mary Dawson was also the witness of the marriage of Sarah Hagan and James Hagan, 13 Feb 1798. She is also a witness of James Hagan's will 2 Nov 1822 along with Edward and John Hagan.

Edward of James and Monica makes the surety for the bond of his orphaned niece Statia Elder, daughter of Thomas Elder, dec'd to marry John R. Medcalf, bond 28 Jan 1822, Nelson Co. Ky.

¹⁹¹ ST Scharf, History of Western Maryland, p 153: James Hagan, corporal of the State Militia, was granted plot #3087 of the vacant lands west of Fort Cumberland by the State Assembly, Nov 1781.

According to A. Hamilton, this Cpl. James is the son of James Sr., and she in Genealogy of Thomas Clark Hagan, p 7. She provides a photocopy of pension application and says: "James Hagan appeared before Nelson Co Court and gave his age as 66 years. He states he enlisted in Maryland in 1776 in Captain John Smith's Company (The 4th Regiment). His wife, aged 56 and 2 daughters, are living with him. He served in the 4th Regiment and later transferred to the Second Maryland Regiment under the command of Col Ford. He served from 1776 to August 1783 when he was discharged by Col. Brumby. He fought in the battle of Brandywine, Germantown, Camden, Guilford Courthouse and Eutaw Springs. He was shot in the hip during the last battle. Walter Hagan [also a soldier in the Revolution, cf.. Other Hagans] made oath that James Hagan was in the war for six or seven years, and he was in service as late as 1781; warrant s-36003.

Also HW Newman, Maryland Revolutionary Records: Hagan, James, b 1774, pvt, wounded. AC Quisenberry, Revolutionary Soldiers in Kentucky (1982), p 132: James Hagan, private, Maryland line, age 80, died 30 Dec 1829, of Nelson Co.

Samuel McAdams and Sarah Hagan McAdams in deed book 6, p 546 (1805) sold to James Hagan Jr. the home place located between Holy Cross Church in Marion Co and Gethsemene near New Hope. Anna Hamilton, Thomas Clarke Hagan, p. 8. James is shown on the 1802 tax list with 100 A on Pottinger's Creek, and in 1805 he has 231 acres through 1820 when my records ends.

¹⁹² I do not know where I got the record that James Hagan married Sarah McAdams. The one piece of evidence that points to a relationship is the deed in which Samuel and Sarah (Hagan?, his sister?) sold James Hagan land for five shillings which seems like a paltry sum of money suggesting that blood was somehow part of the bargain. Deed Bk 6, p 546 (1805). According to Anna Hamilton, this land was part of the home place located between Holy Cross Church in Marion Co and Gethsemene near New Hope; Thomas Clarke Hagan, p. 8.

According to my calculations, this James would not have married Sarah Hagan, d/o Ignatius Sr. because she would have been his first cousin; she instead married James s/o Bennet. There is a proliferation of James Hagans, but in the tax rolls of 1796, 1799, 1800, 1801, there are only three, and they would be James, Jr. s/o James and Monica, James s/o Bennet, and James, s/o Ignatius AC and husband of Mary. I do not know how I came by the name of his wife as Sarah McAdams. I have no marriage records for them; possible they were married in Maryland. However, he would have known the family since his sister Sarah married Samuel McAdams.

According to Anna Hamilton, Thomas Clarke Hagan, James Hagan, the father of Thomas Clark, married Monica Fenwick. However, the bond which she reproduces seems to read "James Hager" as does the transcript of the Nelson County Bonds, 1785-1832. Webb in Catholicity in Kentucky, 110 lists a James Hager as living in the Rolling Fork community in 1800. Also Thompson in Ky Catholic Pioneers, lists James and Monica (Fenwick) Hager as the parents of Henry c 1807 and John c 1810.

Hamilton also lists him as the son of James and Monica Hagan. However, the children of this James are not the same as those given as the brothers and sisters of Thomas Clarke Hagan. Mr. James W. Hagan, Rt. 2, Box 344, Whitesville, Ky 42378, calls this James "James II" and does not list his wife.

¹⁹³ From A. Hamilton's genealogy of Thomas Clarke Hagan: From the Hardin County Court Order, Elizabethtown Kentucky, p 184, Monday, 9 Aug 1830: This day Henry Alvey a disinterested and reputable witness came into Court and made Oath that James Hagan (who always represented that he was a Soldier in the Revolutionary War) departed this life on the 30th day of December 1829 and that the wife of said Hagan departed this life long before him, also that Francis E Hagan, Thomas C. Hagan, William Hagan, Mary Ann Riney, and John B. Riney her husband, and Ann Hagan are all the heirs of the said James Hagan that he ever heard of and that they are all over 21 years of age.

Cemetery Records of St. Catherine, New Have list Francis Hagan 55 with no date and his wife Elizabeth age 91 6 months, no date.

¹⁹⁶ In the 1850 Census of Larue Co. Charles Hagan, 17, was living with George W and M.J> (= Mary Jane) Brownfield. Charles and Mary Jane, according to notes given me, were brother and sister and children of Francis E and Elizabeth (Mattingly) Hagan. In 1870 Larue, Charles R is 36 blacksmith with Adella 24, Walker 3 and Frances 1/12; by 1870 he is a tailor of 47 still in Larue with Adella 37, W. Walker 13, Fannie B. 10 Amelia 4 and Mattie 7; also living with them is Lillie Williamson 24, listed as a niece.

In 1860 Census of Larue, Elizabeth Hagan 67f is living with WW Williamson 30 a bootmaker, SA 28f his wife, and NA 16f. In 1870 Census of Larue, Elizabeth Hagan 77 is living with William Redman 40 with Nancy 12, Ella 8, Pauline 6, Adaline 4; a note says that Redman married Susan Hagan d/o Francis E and Elizabeth Hagan.

¹⁹⁷ Anna Hamilton lists her as marrying Wm. Smith Jarboe, but he married Ann d/o Ignatius Hagan, Jr. (ADBA).

From the notes of Paul Hagan: The tombstone of Thomas Sidney in the Holy Cross cemetery at Holy Cross, KY is located "in front of the site of the old church about 75 feet and is broken in two pieces;" it reads:

BORN
Feb. 15, 1800
DIED
JULY, 20 1886
AGED 86 YEARS

Marion Co. Deed Book 2, pp 625-626: TS bought land on Pottinger from John L. Head; 18 May 1863. - GT

According to Martha Pikell the tombstone of T. Sidney Hagan reads "born 2/15/1800; died (not given), son of Philip & Mary." This would mean that Clement's middle name is Philip." HH: When I looked over the cemetery at Holy Cross, I did not see the tombstone.

He is listed in the 1850 Census as Thomas L! "farmer, assessed $2,800" with only the following children: Catherine, b c1831; Frances, b c1833; Serena, b c1843, George, b c1845; Jenethe, dau b c1848.

According to what has been handed down in the family, he owned a house near Holy Cross on the road to Manton very near Rohan's Knob.

Taken from The History of Kentucky by WH Perrin, JH Battle, GC Kniffin (1887), p 871:

E C. Hagan was born January 8, 1834 and is a son of Sidney and Nancy (Cecil) Hagan. Sidney was born in 1800, one mile east of new Hope, was reared a farmer and had 700 acres of land; he was also a large holder of slaves property; was a clerk in his young days, also carried on distilling for forty years. He was live in Marion county since 1823, and served several times as magistrate. He was son of Clem Hagan and Millie (Miles) Hagan, who were natives of Maryland and Virginia respectively, and were among the first settlers on Pottinger's Creek. Clem Hagan was a farmer an distiller, and when but a small boy he lost his parents, who were of Irish descent. Mrs Nancy Hagan was a daughter of James and Susan Hamett, who were natives of Cecil County Md. and raised a family of eight children. Ed C. Hagan was born in the west part of Marion County, was raised on a farm and received a fair English education; he spent one year in St. Mary's College, taught in the common schools a few terms, and commenced the battle of life for himself at the age of eighteen years. September 2, 1861, he enlisted in Company B, Ninth Kentucky Confederate Infantry, participated in the battles of Shiloh and Stone River, and in fact was in all engagements in which the regiment took part except Baton Rouge. At the battle of Jonesboro, Ga., he lost his right arm, was captured and sent to the hospital where he remained for eight months; he was at Camp Chase for four months when he was released at the close of the war in June 1865. He then turned to his home and engaged in stock trading two years, then engaged in general farming for seven years. In 1876 he commenced selling goods, which he continued four years, after which he returned to farming. In November 1884, he returned to the dry goods business at New Hope where he is now engaged; he was also engaged for four years in distilling. October 7 1879, he married Anna Parolee Barry, daughter of Dr. J.J. Barry and Frances Felicia Barry of New Haven, Ky. Dr. Barry was born in County Cork, Ireland, came to Kentucky at the age of sixteen, graduated in medicine in Louisville, was the author of several religious and scientific works; understood seven different languages, lived and died a member of the Roman Catholic Church. Mrs. Barry was the daughter of the Rev. Samuel Jesse of Shelby County, and is a convert to the Catholic Church; her parents were born in Virginia. To Mr. Hagan's marriage four children were born: Joseph S. (deceased), Frank Miles, Augustine Bradford (deceased), and John Sidney. Mr. and Mrs. Hagan are members of the Roman Catholic Church. Mr. Hagan cast his first presidential vote for James Buchanan.

²³⁰ From a printed article in the notes of Gerald Thompson; no reference given: "Joseph Hagan settled at Indian creek [MO] about the same time as the Greens, the Miles and the Yates. Joseph married Mary Bell in Kentucky and moved to land in the Indian creek settlement. Joseph and Mary (Bell) Hagan are listed in the St. Stephen baptismal record as early as 1838. [children listed; cf.. below.] After eight children, Joseph must have decided it was time to homestead. He entered 40 acres of government land November 14, 1855. The land was on the east bank of the Big Indian creek, south of what is now the Lambert Hagan farm, and about three to three and one-half miles southeast of Swinkey. Joseph probably had other land, bought from the government by other settlers who decided to move on. One of those who lived in the area and is known to have moved on was Fauntleroy Dye.

"Joseph, his brother [I think this is a mistake because Joseph is not a brother], Fielder,, who married Mary Donnally, and his brother John and wife, Catherine, all owned slaves. Owners were very careful about baptizing their slaves, as we find when we examine the St. Stephen baptismal record."

Polk Johnson, History of Kentucky and Kentuckians (1912) [in Owensboro library]: Frank grew up in Hannibal MO where his family had moved, became a captain in the confederate army, and after war settle in Louisville where he practiced law. ²³⁹ MP: "There were, of course, two Benjamin Hagens in the Charles Co. census of 1790 but it was obviously the older of the two who removed his family to Kentucky. Also, it was Benjamin Hagan of Thomas² who sold "Good Intent," his wife Monica (Blandford) waiving dower, in March 1793, the year that he first appeared in Nelson Co.

Nelson Co. Clerk's Office, Deed Book 9, p 180; dated 13 Oct 1810. Deed between the heirs of Benjamin Hagan and Proctor Ballard for about 200 A. of land in exchange for 244 pounds current money of the state. Heirs named: "Nicholas Hagan, Edward Hagan, Wilfred Hagan, Elizabeth Hagan, Christopher Hagan, Jesse Beal husband to Rachel Hagan daughter to Benjamin Hagan dec'd and Elenor Hagan, all of Nelson State of Kentucky, all being heirs and legal representatives of the said Benjamin Hagan dec'd."

1778 Census of Md, Chas. Co. Bryan Town Hundred lists "Benjamin." 1790 Census of Chas. Co. lists two Benjamins, one designated by Newport.

Benjamin Hagan: 4m +16, 3m -16, 5 females, slaves 1.

Benjamin of Newport: 1m +16, 2m -16, 4 females, no slaves.

In the 1795 tax rolls of Nelson Co., a Benjamin Hagan paid taxes on 300 acres on Mar 13 along with Edward Hagan and Benedict Hagan. The other Hagens (including Burnet = Bennet) live in the southern part of the county paid on Mar 21.

Beginning with the 1800 tax rolls, the property Benjamin Hagan's property is listed as levy free without a male over 21 years of age up through at least 1805. The size of the property drops from 300A on Pottinger in 1795 to 250 in 1800, to 225 in 1801, to 200 in 1802-1805.

A Benjamin Hagan is listed in the revolutionary militia of Charles Co; cf.. revolutionary records at the end of this manuscript.

²⁴¹ "This Indenter made this thirtieth day of October in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ten between Nicholas Hagan, Edward Hagan, Wilfrid Hagan Benjamin Hagan, Elizabeth Hagan, Christopher Hagan Jesse Beal husband to Rachel Hagan daughter to Benjamin Hagan and Elinor Hagan all of the County of Nelson State of Kentucky all being the heirs and legal representative of the said Benjamin Hagan dec'd of the one part and Proctor Ballard of the other part..." Deed Book 9, p 180. Information provided by Dan Fisher of St. Louis, MO.

²⁴² MP: It is possible that it was Benjamin Hagan's son Edward who was the Edward Hagan of York Co. Pa., who purchased land in Frederick Co. in June 1793, and then on the same day as Edward Hagan of Frederick Co. deeded the same land to another (WR#11:617-618).

²⁴⁷ In 1805 Benjamin Jr. appears on the tax lists of Nelson County, i.e. the year after he marries.

Other circumstantial information indicates this Benjamin lived in the Beech Fork area. Thus I have put this family here. Also McGuire names Benjamin as a son of Benjamin who dies in 1810 on the basis of deeds in Washington Co., but she does not say which deeds. However, no Benjamin is named in the deed of the heirs of the Benjamin who dies in 1810; cf.. above. It is possible that he is the son of Walter Hagan, Sr. listed as ADBGD above.

According to Martha Pikell, this Hagan family became the Hagar/Hager family of St. Mary's Co. It is now clear how or if they are connected to Thomas Hagan.

²⁵² On November 9, 1708 Robert Hagan, Sr., of Charles Co., Planter, and Elizabeth his wife, and Robert Hagan, Jr. eldest son of said Robert Hagan, Sr., sold to Richard Edelen of Charles Co. for 50 pounds plus 2,400 lbs. tobacco three tracts of land lying in Charles Co. being three portions of "St. George's" adjoining the plantation of Mr. Marmaduke Simmes. On portion contained 100 acres which the said Robert Hagan, Sr. had purchased of Thomas Simpson of St. Mary's Co. Planter, by a deed of conveyance on April 29, 1687. The second parcel of 40 acres had been purchased of Thomas Simpson on March 9, 1695/6 and was bounded on a oak of Andrew Simpson which stood between the land of the said Andrew Simpson and Mr. Thomas Clark, and the third portion of 50 acres adjoined the dwelling plantation of Robert Hagan, Sr., which was a moiety of the 100 acres of "St. George's" which had been given by Thomas Simpson to his son Andrew Simpson by deed of January 10 1699/1700. Both Robert, Sr., and Robert, Jr., signed the deed of conveyance to Richard Edelen, but Elizabeth Hagan made her mark. Maryland Semmes and Kindred Families, 169.

According to Martha S. Pikell's manuscript, this Robert Hagan "became the progenitor of the St. Mary's County Hagers." It has been suggested that he is the son of Thomas Sr., but he is not named in the will of Thomas, Sr.

PART II: BENNET HAGAN LINE

II. Magdalen Hagon Some argue that she was the second wife of Ignatius (AC), but none of the children mentioned in her will are mentioned in the will of Ignatius. Furthermore the land which that Magdalen receives from Ignatius is designated for other children named in the will after her death and not to the children named in this will.

Was she perhaps married to William s/o Ignatius (ACA) or James Hagan (ABAA) since no wife has been located for either? There is also a Nathaniel Hagan who takes the oath of fidelity in 1778 in Charles Co. MD; the name Nathaniel appears later in this line.

In her will of 23 Feb 1776, probated 23 Feb 1776 in Charles Co., Magdalen Hagon names as her sons Bennet and Leonard, and daughters Charity Beavan and Rebecca Montgomery. She gives her children slaves and household furnishings but makes no mention of land unless it is part of her "estate" which is to be divided equally. Exec: Leonard and Bennet Hagan. Zadok Magruder. Leonard Hagan also served in the War of Independence as a private in the seventh regiment of Maryland and received a land grant in Western Maryland (#1338) and died 9 Dec 1782. The date of his death is given in the "Commissioner of Army Accounts Pay Accounts 1784" on p. 65 which was sent to me by Jessie Hagan. Bennet Hagan administered the estate of Leonard Hagan as indicated by the bond of "Bennet Hagan of Frederick Co and Charles Ridgley and Jesse Smith? of the City of Annapolis" for Bennet Hagan who was administrator of the estate of Leonard Hagan: 4 Jun 1785. The Pennsylvania Germans in Md, p 210: also mentions a Leonard Hagan as a soldier in the Revolutionary War.

He mentions a book of advances which is not found in the estate papers. Date 24 Oct 1836; probated 11 Aug 1837. Witnesses Henry Miles, Leonard Edelen, Richard Miles.

²⁸⁸ Joseph M. Hagan is listed in the 1860 Census of Nelson Co. Bardstown Dist. #2 (p. 122, 40-40), as a 26 year old blacksmith; in the same house are Emma, 22 yr old female, Fanny 4 yr. old fem., and George 1 yr. old male.

I could not find the family in my rushed look at the 1870 Census. In the 1880 Census, Joseph M. is not listed, and I presume that he is dead. Emily Hagan is living in the New Haven Precinct (196-196) with her "daughter" Fanny, 21 (!) yrs old ; her "son" George 19 yrs old; her "son" Robert, 16, and her "daughter" Carry, 12.

²⁸⁹ She is listed for her marriage bond and as 22 for the 1860 Census. For the 1880 Census her age is given as 48 which seems wrong in view of the other two pieces of information.

²⁹⁰ His name is John B. Hill according to Alice Cole's paper and Martine according to the genealogy on the Hill Family.

²⁹¹ The Pius Hagan who married Lucinda Rhodes in 1839 is listed in the 1850 Census of Nelson Co with the following children: Louisa 9, Harriet ?, Wm. ?, Wesley 5, Julietty 4, Edward 2. This Pius died in 1902 at home on Cox's Cree, Nelson Co., aged 73. Lebanon Enterprise, vol. 19, No. 46, p. 3, Friday 10 Jan 1902. Pius Hagan, aged 73, died at his home on Cox's Creek, Nelson Co. ²⁹⁹ Information on Basil's marriages provided by in a letter by Martha S. Pikell to Mrs. Keeling. There is no proof for the first marriage which presumably took place in Md. The second marriage is found in Nelson Co. Register 4:2 (Fall, 1980) 4. The Basil who married Priscilla Langley could not have been the son of Raphael, b 1800, and he married Eleanor Medcalf.

³⁰² I have ascribed the marriages and children to this Robert son of Basil on the basis of the child named Basil, but this is not absolutely certain. The will of Robert Hagan names Henrietta his wife, and children Basil, Robert, Catherine and Louisa. Made Apr 1858 and recorded Jul 1858, Bk 9:363. Information collected by Celia Keeling.

No Robert Hagan is listed in the 1810 census of Nelson Co. The Census of 1820 lists two Robert Hagan, the other being the husband of Christine Dyer (cf., above under AA. William). The census is damaged and lists only one female 16-26; the damaged section must have listed a man, i.e. Robert. The census clearly shows no children up to the age of 16. The 1830 census again lists but two Roberts, seemingly the same two. The household of the younger Robert lists: males, 1 30-40, 1 5-10; females/free blacks: 1 60-70, 1 30-40, 1 5-10, 2 0-5.

PART IV: HENRY HAGAN OF MARION CO. KY

- IV. Henry Hagan settled at St. Charles in Marion Co.³¹¹
MJ Maguire thinks perhaps he was the s/o Henry s/o William, Jr., "but this Henry inherited land and Henry who died in 1826 never owned any land except that which he bought in Washington Co.: 500 acres on Stewart's Creek of the Rolling fork in 1800 (Bk B:312)." So. Pikell.
Other possibilities: Henry of Thomas, Jr.? or the son of Henry (Wm, Jas, Th.)?
According "Mudd Family", was born in Ireland and is not connected, but I doubt this. It also says his son John Joseph was born on the way over, but the 1850 Census says he was born in MD.
Since his son John Joseph is said to have been born in St. Mary's Co, perhaps he is a descendant of Robert Hagan/Hager.

³²⁵ The best information of this family has been compiled by C. Hagan Vittitoe, 1015 E. Norwood Blvd., Peoria, IL 61603-1411, and he has carried it down into the later generations..

For the wife and children of Henry Hagan, see 1870 Census of Hardin Co. Margaret Ann's maiden name is given in the baptismal record of their daughter Margaret Euphemia, and Henry's middle initial is given as "M" as in marriage licence.

This Henry and his wife Margaret inherited the land on Stewart Creek. in Washington Co. where Henry Sr. lived: Bk B:312 and J:20.

³²⁶When his wife died, he went to live with his daughter Margaret Beavin and her family.

³²⁷ From a letter of C Hagan Vittitoe to me on 14 Dec 1994: "Henry Melton Hagan and his wife Margaret Ann Geoghegan, were my Mother's grandparents and she knew them both. When Margaret died in 1910 (my mother was 15 at the time) Henry moved to Oklahoma to live with his daughter Margaret and her husband Frank Beavin. ...My mother told me her grandparents had 18 children but that 10 of them died in infancy. The ones that survived are shown on the enclosed "family group" sheets." Mr. Vittitoe lists the following in order: Elizabeth Alice; Thomas Geoghegan; Henry; Susan B.; Margaret; Annie; Robert O'Leary.

³⁵⁶ "James of Ignatius" is listed 1778 Census of Md, Chas. Co. Bryantown Hundred; also in 1790 Census of Chas Co.: males, 1 16+, 1 16-; females 3. A second "James" is also listed in 1778 census; who is he?

The 1800 "Census" of Ky lists three James Hagan's plus James A(quilla?) in Nelson Co. Martha Pikell gathered the following information on a James living on Froman Creek:

Deed Book 6, 216: 1 Aug 1803!, Nelson Co., Ky: Peter Hahn and Peggy, his wife to Mary Hagan, widow; Julian and Mary Magdalen Hagan, heirs to James Hagan, dec'd, for £50, current money, for 40 A. of land in Nelson Co on the waters of Froman Creek, being part of tract where sd Hahn now lives.

Inventory of James Hagan: $107.80, appraisers took oath 19 Nov 1813!; it was recorded 19 Dec 1814. Mrs. Pikell concludes that "since we have no record of any other James dying there in 1800-1820 period, this would refer to Mary's husband." James is on the Nelson Co. tax lists from 1796 to 1801, and then Mary in 1802, 1813 to 1815 with 40 A., but no land in 1816, and she does not appear on the rolls at all in 1817. Since nothing indicates she sold the land, one can suppose that when Mary Magdalen married Aquilla (son of Basil, who had property on the east side of Froman Creek), he farmed the land. From a letter by Martha S. Pikell to Celia Keeling.

³⁵⁷ According to the 1850 Census, Quiller Hagan was 62 farmer, $1,080 with R. 27 f. L. 25f, and Pius 18m.

³⁵⁸ ST Scharf, History of Western Maryland, p 153: James Hagan, corporal of the State Militia, was granted plot #3087 of the vacant lands west of Fort Cumberland by the State Assembly, Nov 1781.

According to A. Hamilton, this Cpl. James is the son of James Sr., and she in Genealogy of Thomas Clark Hagan, p 7. She provides a photocopy of pension application and says: "James Hagan appeared before Nelson Co Court and gave his age as 66 years. He states he enlisted in Maryland in 1776 in Captain John Smith's Company (The 4th Regiment). His wife, aged 56 and 2 daughters, are living with him. He served in the 4th Regiment and later transferred to the Second Maryland Regiment under the command of Col Ford. He served from 1776 to August 1883 when he was discharged by Col. Brumby. He fought in the battle of Brandywine, Germantown, Camden, Guilford Courthouse and Eutaw Springs. He was shot in the hip during the last battle. Walter Hagan [also a soldier in the Revolution? cf. Other Hagans] made oath that James Hagan was in the war for six or seven years, and he was in service as late as 1781; warrant s-36003.

Also HW Newman, Maryland Revolutionary Records: Hagan, James, b 1874, pvt, wounded. AC Quisenberry, Revolutionary Soldiers in Kentucky (1982), p 132: James Hagan, private, Maryland line, age 80, died 30 Dec 1829, of Nelson Co.

Samuel McAdams and Sarah Hagan McAdams in deed book 6, p 546 (1805) sold to James Hagan Jr. the home place located between Holy Cross Church in Marion Co and Gethsemene near New Hope. Anna Hamilton, Thomas Clarke Hagan, p. 8. James is shown on the 1802 tax list with 100 A on Pottinger's Creek, and in 1805 he has 231 acres through 1820 when my records ends.

³⁵⁹ I do not know where I got the record that James Hagan married Sarah McAdams. The one piece of evidence that points to a relationship is the deed in which Samuel and Sarah (Hagan?, his sister?) sold James Hagan land for five shillings which seems like a paltry sum of money perhaps suggesting that blood was somehow part of the bargain. Deed Bk 6, p 546 (1805). According to Anna Hamilton, this land was part of the home place located between Holy Cross Church in Marion Co and Gethsemene near New Hope; Thomas Clarke Hagan, p. 8.

According to my calculations, this James would not have married Sarah Hagan, d/o Ignatius Sr. because she would have been his first cousin; she instead married James s/o Bennet. There is a proliferation of James Hagans, but in the tax rolls of 1796, 1799, 1800, 1801, there are only three, and they would be James, Jr. s/o James and Monica, James s/o Bennet, and James, s/o Ignatius AC and husband of Mary.

³⁶⁰ From A. Hamilton's genealogy of Thomas Clarke Hagan: From the Hardin County Court Order, Elizabethtown Kentucky, p 184, Monday, 9 Aug 1830: This day Henry Alvey a disinterested and reputable witness came into Court and made Oath that James Hagan (who always represented that he was a Soldier in the Revolutionary War) departed this life on the 30th day of December 1829 and that the wife of said Hagan departed this life long before him, also that Francis E Hagan, Thomas C. Hagan, William Hagan, Mary Ann Riney, and John B. Riney her husband, and Ann Hagan are all the heirs of the said James Hagan that he ever heard of and that they are all over 21 years of age.

Will of Francis Hagan, made 17 Jan 1843 and probated 13 Mar 1843, leaves his estate to wife -llen Hagan (including interest in negroes belonging to the heirs of James Hagan, dec'd) Executrix, Ellen Hagan. Even though the name of the wife is Ellen and not Elizabeth, Gerald Thompson, puts the will here.

Note: Pius or maybe Elias (or whatever this is suppose to read) is not listed in the estate paper.

³⁶³ He appears on the Nelson Co. tax list for the first time in 1796 as an adult.

³⁶⁴ Nelson Co. Will book 3, p 131: Will of Elias Hagan, made 27 Aug 1840, probated 14 Sept 1840; estate to three sisters: Christiana Burch, Ellon Hayden, and Lucinda Hagan. Exec. Stanislaus L. Burch. Wit: James W. McKeigney, James B---. From Annie Walker Burns' 1933 Abstracts of the Wills of Nelson Co. KY 1784-1851, p 47.

Sometime in the 1970's, Mrs. Maguire wrote a short analysis of the problem of identifying the early James Hagens of Nelson Co. The name of James appears for the first time on the Nelson Co. tax records in 1791, and then in 1793. In 1796 three appear on the tax lists of the county. In the next year a James Aquilla Hagan appears, but as Mrs. Maguire notes, he is not a problem, and she disregards him as I shall. As for the three James who appear in 1796, two are listed in the southern part of the county along Pottinger Creek, and the third was a part of the list for the northern part of the county.

The northern James appears on the tax lists from 1796 to 1801 with no land. In 1802, however, Mary Hagan appears in the same part of the county, and a Mary Hagan appears on the tax lists 1816 with 40 acres except for the last year when she has no land. She is the widow of James since she "widow" and her daughters Julian and Mary Magdalen, "heirs to James Hagan, dec'd" buy 40 acres of land in 1803.³⁶⁵ According to Martha Pikell, this man is "James of Ignatius" (ACD) listed in the 1778 Census of Md, Chas. Co. Bryantown Hundred; also in 1790 Census of Chas Co.: males, 1 16+, 1 16-; females 3.

We return now to the two southern James Hagens.

As is clear from the will of James Hagan (1776), husband of Monica (Johnson) Hagan, they had a son named James. Monica came to Kentucky in 1785 with her three sons (Edward, James, and Clement) and her five daughters (Mary, Susannah, Sarah, Aliege, and Tabitha). This James seems to be the one who appears with his brothers as a tithable in 1791, and, as Mrs. Maguire notes, "was undoubtedly the other male 21 or over living with Edward in 1792 and 1794." In 1795 this James is not listed either by name or as an adult living with Edward or with Monica who appears on the lists for the first time.

As noted above, a second James appears in the 1796 tax list: Enoch, Randolph, James, Bennet, James, Monica, Edward. His appearance offers two possibilities: James had just moved to KY, or he turned twenty-one between the summers of 1795 and 1796 and was a son of an existing family.

At the time of Mrs. Maguire's research, Enoch, Randolph, and Benet were considered sons of Ignatius³ (Thomas², Thomas¹). However, it now seems clear that Enoch and Randolph were sons of Benet. The basis for this lies in a settlement of the heirs of Benet who sell land to Randolph Hagan. James however is not listed in this settlement but has been listed as a son of Benet on the basis of the tax rolls given ³⁶⁵ Deed Book 6, 216: 1 Aug 1803!, Nelson Co., Ky: Peter Hahn and Peggy, his wife to Mary Hagan, widow; Julian and Mary Magdalen Hagan, heirs to James Hagan, dec'd, for £50, current money, for 40 A. of land in Nelson Co on the waters of Froman Creek, being part of tract where sd Hahn now lives.

Inventory of James Hagan: $107.80, appraisers took oath 19 Nov 1813!; it was recorded 19 Dec 1814.

A second Mary Hagan dies in 1811 and leaves four children: Nelson Co. Will book B 320: She calls for her property to "be equally divided between my four children Berlinda Hagan, Elizabeth Hagan, Walter Hagan, and Benjamin Hagan. I further constitute and appoint my friend Nicholas Miles Sen. my executor..." Dated 18 Jul 1811. Witnesses: Burr Harrison, Anthony Sanders, Henry Beaven Jr. Probated 19 Jul 1811. It is not clear who her husband is.

Mrs. Pikell concludes that "since we have no record of any other James dying there in 1800-1820 period, this would refer to Mary's husband." James is on the Nelson Co. tax lists from 1796 to 1801, and then Mary in 1802, 1813 to 1815 with 40 A., but none in 1816, and not on the rolls at all in 1817. Since nothing indicates she sold the land, one can suppose that when Mary Magdalen married Aquilla (son of Basil, who had property on the east side of Froman Creek), he farmed the land. From a letter by Martha S. Pikell to Celia Keeling.

above where he falls between Randolph and Bennet.³⁶⁶ However, this seems very suspect.

On 12 Feb 1798, a James Hagan marries Sarah Hagan. The bond is signed by Hezekiah her "brother," and Ann is named as her mother.³⁶⁷ Generally Hezekiah is considered the son of Ignatius and Ann (Gardiner) Hagan, Sr. (Thomas², Thomas¹). Ignatius, Sr. dies c1795.³⁶⁸ While some have proposed that Sarah Hagan was the daughter of James and Monica Hagan, this is not true because the brother and mother named are Hezekiah and Ann. The basis for this conjecture was perhaps the fact that Mary (Hagan) Dawson, the eldest child of James and Monica, also witnesses the marriage. The link between these people and the Monica Hagan family is also underlined in the will of this James Hagan who dies between 1822-1824 and names the following in his will:

"my loving wife Sarah Hagan...my loving son Richard...my son Francis...my son Raphel...my son Elias...my daughter Lucindy...my son Augustus...and I appoint my two sons in law to be the sole executors of my estate namely Stanislaus Burch and Charles Hayden." Dated 2 Nov 1822; probated 19 July 1824. Witnesses: Edward Hagan, John Hagan, Mary Dawson.³⁶⁹

Both Edward Hagan and Mary Dawson are children of Monica. They would also have been the first cousins of Sarah daughter of Ignatius and Ann Gardiner.

Generally it is assumed that James the son of Monica Hagan was the revolutionary soldier., and this seems correct because of the age requirements.

From the This day Henry Alvey a disinterested and reputable witness came into Court and made Oath that James Hagan (who always represented that he was a Soldier in the Revolutionary War) departed this life on the 30th day of December 1829 and that the wife of said Hagan departed this life long before him, also that Francis E Hagan, Thomas C. Hagan, ³⁶⁶ In 1797 tax rolls (no dates) the following unbroken grouping appears: James Jr. Hezekiah, Randolph, Enoch, Bennet, Aquilla, James Sr., Edward, Monica, Clement, and Joseph. The designations Sr. and Jr. at this period may only mean older and younger rather than father and son. In 1799 Monica, James, and Edward appear together on Apr 5 while James, Randolph, and Enoch appear together on Apr 18. In 1800 James, James, and Hezekiah appear on 16 May together after the Benjamin Hagan family (Benjamin, Edward, Nicholas) with Caleb, Randolph, Enoch, Edward, and Monica appearing together on 5 Jun.

³⁶⁷ Also a James Hagan, perhaps Sarah's husband, signs the bond for Hezekiah 10 Feb 1800.

³⁶⁸ In 1795 three Ignatius are listed on the tax rolls of Nelson Co. Two are father and son: Ignatius Sr. with 170 acres and Ignatius Jr. The other is listed in 1794 as Ignatius, Jos., i.e. the son of Joseph (Ignatius², Thomas¹). In 1796 on, there appear only two men named Ignatius.

³⁶⁹ Nelson County Clerk's Office, Will Book E, pp 170-171; cf. also estate papers of James Hagan in Nelson Co Clerk's Office, Box 21: heirs listed as Augustus Hagan, Raphael Hagan, Luncinda Hagan, Nelly Haydon (late Hagan), Richard Hagan, Francis Hagan, and Sarah Hagan widow. Dated 17 Dec 1842. (Or did I mean to write 1824?) Stanislaus Burch married Chrstina Hagan, and Charles Hayden married Eleanor Hagan. Mary Dawson and Edward Hagan are children of James and Monica Hagan. John may be the son of Bennet Hagan and perhaps the brother of James.

William Hagan, Mary Ann Riney, and John B. Riney her husband, and Ann Hagan are all the heirs of the said James Hagan that he ever heard of and that they are all over 21 years of age.³⁷⁰

His pension application says:

James Hagan appeared before Nelson Co. Court and gave his age as 66 years. He states he enlisted in Maryland in 1776 in Captain John Smith's Company (The 4th Regiment). His wife, aged 56 and 2 daughters are living with him. He served in the 4th Regiment and later transferred to the Second Maryland Regiment under the command of Col. Ford. He served from 1776 to August 1883 when he was discharged by Col. Brumby. He fought in the battle of Brandywine, Germantown, Camden, Guilford Courthouse and Eutaw Springs. He was shot in the hip during the last battle. Walter Hagan made oath that James Hagan was in the war for six or seven years, and he was in service as late as 1781; warrant s-36003.³⁷¹

According to A.C. Quisenberry (Revolutionary soldiers in Kentucky (1982; p. 132), James Hagan died at the age of 80. That would make his date of birth about 1749. This would put the date of his pension application as 1815. Unfortunately, the name of his wife is not given, and therefore she is presumed dead.

The 1810 Census of Kentucky lists two by the name of James Hagan;

			0-10	10-16	16-26	26-45	45+	slaves
James Hagan:	male	2	2	0	0	1
	fmle		0	0	0	0	1	0
	fmle	1	1	0	1	0	3

The main difference here is the age of the two James. the first was born before 1765, and the second after 1765. James the Revolutionary Soldier was born about 1749 and would have been about 60 years old in 1810; so he would fit the 45+ category. However the children do not match. He had three boys and two girls. Seemingly all of his sons were over 10 in 1810, and no daughters are listed.

The younger James first appears on the tax role in 1796 which would make his birth year about 1775. He and his wife had five boys and three girls. Since they were only married in 1798, this statistics for the younger James here in the 1810 Census would seem to match.

No one appears on the 1820 federal census by the name of James Hagan, but two appear on the 1820 Nelson Co. tax rolls.

p 33 Smith's roll James Hagan 1 0 0 2
Smith's list includes: Thomas C, James, Henry, John p 35 Hall's roll: James Hagan, 233 acres, Pott Ck 1 3 5 7

³⁷⁰ Hardin County Court Order, Elizabethtown Kentucky, p 184, Monday, 9 Aug 1830; from A. Hamilton's genealogy of Thomas Clarke Hagan:

³⁷¹From a photocopy in A Hamilton's Genealogy of Thomas Clark Hagan.

Hall's list includes: Hezekiah, James (233A), Edwd (400A), Francis

Thomas C would seem to be Thomas Clark, the son of the revolutionary soldier. In this case, the James, the Revolutionary soldier, would seem to be the one on Smith's lists. Then the other James living in the southern part of the county on Pottinger's Creek with 233 acres would be the younger one who was the brother-in-law of Hezekiah.

It is generally assumed that James Hagan the Revolutionary soldier is the son of Monica Hagan, and this seems to be correct. The younger Clearly Monica had a son named James, but how do we know that the revolutionary soldier was her son?
