

Memory Verse

<sup>24</sup> And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.<sup>25</sup> Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another

Usually we think of the Christian life as doing good deeds and good works in our OWN lives. What does the above passage say about our role for doing good works and good deeds in OTHER PEOPLE'S lives?

What are some obstacles that will keep us from doing this?

Read Philippians 2:1-11

How is Jesus an example of the attitude we need to have as we seek to encourage others to good works.

How does this attitude help us as we seek to do this?

Think of some specific ways you can help "spur one another on towards love and good deeds." Share these ideas with a family member or friend and have them help you to remember to practice them.

If each person in your family, and at Jericho Valley Church focused on encouraging others to become more like Christ, what would this do for your family and our church?

Take some time throughout the week, to look up the following verses. Discuss how they show us how we need to take responsibility for the helping other believers grow in their relationship with Jesus Christ. Also, as you read these passages, ask yourself this question: "Does the Bible consider encouraging others to love God an option?"
