Subject: Holly bids you farewell

I'm already missing you...

I am only grateful for having you in the past 2+ years in Citi.
Time flies, and my days with Citi come to a close today.
It's hard to say goodbye, much harder than I thought... but c'est la vie:

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace."
(from the Book of Ecclesiastes, the Holy Bible)

It is my honor to have worked with admirable leaders and great coworkers like you.
Thanks for inspiring me in many, many ways,
for your trust and patience,
for all that you are, all that you do.

I'll take a short break and then move on.
I'm sure your blessings will follow me (thank you!).
God bless you too.

Friendship never expires.

Holly
