Homework Assignment I

Please feel free to contact one of the mentors if you have questions about any portion of this assignment.

Email

Electronic mail or email will be our primary means of communication throughout this program. Therefore, we want everyone to obtain an email address (if you don't already have one) and check it at least once a week. To make sure that everyone has an email account and knows all the basics about email, there will be an email component to each of your homework assignments. Please refer to the email handouts given at each session to complete your assignment. Your first assignment is as follows:

1. Get an email address (if you don't already have one)
2. Email our long-distance mentor, Robyn Williams (robyndwilliams@yahoo.com), the following commitment statement:
"I <enter your name> commit to checking my email at least once a week. If I don't have access to the internet at my own home, I will make weekly arrangements to check my email at school, at the public library, at a relative's house, or at a friend's house. Can you please send me the commitment confirmation statement?"
3. When she responds to your email, write down the commitment confirmation statement below and present it to a mentor at the next Saturday session.

4. Please allow at least two days for her to respond. This means that you cannot wait until the night before the next session to complete this assignment!

Spiritual Gifts

God desires us to use our spiritual gifts to uplift His entire kingdom. The special gifts that God has given you are with you always. They are also intended to be used in your daily life to bring glory to God and serve the needs of others. Therefore, your assignment is to:

1. Pray and ask God how he desires you to use your spiritual gifts at home, church, school, and in your future career
2. Write down how you feel God wants you to use your spiritual gifts on the attached worksheet.

Start working on your assignment now. Do not procrastinate!!!

Next Session: February 19, 2005 9:00am– 12:30pm
