

Places on the Underground Railroad: Ripley, Ohio

$9.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

What was the "Underground Railroad?" Was it a subway? Was it a real railroad? Who traveled on this railroad? This book explores Ripley, Ohio, and several of her citizens. Ripley was a center of the Underground Railroad and several citizens played leading roles as "conductors" on the railroad.

Pioneers of Profit Among the Clouds

$10.50

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

A decade after the Wright brother some pioneers along Tampa Bay began the first scheduled airline service. It was not successful but paved the way for future attempts. Commercialization of the airways would begin in earnest after World War I. For one thing there was an abundance of war surplus flying machines available, meaning aircraft were affordable for such ventures. For another matter, manpower to power these machines, or at least "pilot" them, was also available. Barnstorming pilots would become all the rage in the 1920's, but regulations on aircraft and flying meant there was more order to the skies.

An Apology of the Lutheran Faith

$10.50

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

There was a web site where adherents of a church wrote essays entitled "Why I left [denomination]." One essay was called "Why I Left Lutheranism." Of course there was a bias. This book is an apology of the Lutheran faith and addresses errors of the author of the original piece.

This book is an aid to those who find themselves needing to defend the Lutheran Christian faith. It may well serve to enlighten the reader about Christian doctrinal matters as well.

Heritage of the Lutheran Reformation

$20.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

Now that the historical fact of the Lutheran Reformation has passed, what is the enduring legacy and heritage of the Lutheran Reformation? This book looks at the heritage of the Lutheran Reformation in the areas of theology, music, education, customs, and life.

Reflections on the Lutheran Reformation

$11.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

Every year on October 31 Lutherans celebrate the part of their heritage that historians mark as the beginning of the Protestant Reformation in the Western (Latin) Church. This book of essays, sermons, as well as the 95 Thesis themselves (in English, Latin, and German) is a composite summary of the events of that day that changed history.

Scriptural Handbook to "What's Going on Among the Lutherans?"

$13.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

What are the historic teachings and doctrines of the Christian faith? Why do Christians believe Moses wrote the first five books of the Bible? This book, a handbook with Scriptural supports of confessional Lutheran teachings, is a complement to Patsy Leppien and Kincaid Smith's book, "What's Going on Among the Lutherans?" and is a fine Bible study with or without that book.

Immanuel! God is Still With Us!

$17.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

Some days or events or life-trials deflate us. At times like this we may wonder why God has deserted us. But, as the poem "Footprints" so vividly illustrates, God does remain with us and in fact carries us over the rapids and eddies of life. Immanuel—God is with us!

Santa Claus: Is He For Your Child?

$18.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

This is a thorough look at not only Santa Claus, but his predecessor Saint Nicolas. The author goes through and compares the tales with similar instances faced by people in Scripture. In these comparisons he illustrates the differences. The author also gives the historical and mendicant nature of Saint Nick/Santa "worship."

Scripture Answers its Liberal Critics: A Companion Workbook

$13.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

Liberal scholars attempt to refute the traditional and fundamental beliefs of the Christian faith. They assert that editors compiled oral traditions into the first five books of the Bible, that they were not written by Moses. They deny the Virgin Birth and the Resurrection. They dismiss prophecies, especially those that foretell the Christ, our Savior. This companion handbook is a Bible study for the believer who wishes to learn more about the Christian faith and to defend that faith.

Leaders of the Reformation

$11.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

When discussion and study of the Reformation happens the focus often is on Rome, Luther, Calvin, and Zwingli. Rarely does anyone focus on the ancillary players and the footnote players. But often these very people are key, even in small ways, to enabling the great leaders to succeed. This book looks at leaders who served Luther as well as served with Luther. The first section looks at the Electors of Saxony without whom Luther would not have lasted without their protection and providence. Their faith was put to the test in allowing Luther to teach and protecting him from papal and imperial edicts. The section section looks at the associates of Luther who guided Luther and aided him in the fledgling movement.

Places of the Reformation

$10.50

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

Students of the Reformation often gloss over the names of cities and places where Luther and his followers lived, breathed, worked, and confessed their faith. But these cities had histories before—and after—the Reformation. Some cities and locales leave us with impressions and heritages today. This book is but a brief trip through several select cities and locations of Luther and the Reformation movement.

Praises to Hymn

$9.50

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

This book contains several hymns and meditations on the hymns with reference to Scripture. The hymns are arranged in order of the Church year. May these hymns bring a song of joy to your heart as you rest in the comfort of God's salvation.

Carol Lines to Hymn

$13.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

Christmas is a special time of the year. The carols especially bring people together. Every professional singer releases a Christmas album and stand-bys are featured in most albums. This book looks at carols old and new and meditates on the words of each carol. The emphasis is on the baby in Bethlehem's manger, the baby who came to redeem us from our sin. It also includes the four songs of Christmas--Mary's Song, Zechariah's Song, the Song of the Angels, and the Song of Simeon. These carols and meditations are part of the "To Hymn" series.

The Twelve Days of Christmas: A Carol Catechism

$11.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

"The Twelve Days of Christmas" is an age-old Christmas carol. But what does it mean? Is there symbolism in the carol? Was it sung by underground Catholics in Protestant England?

Author John L. Hoh, Jr., uses the carol as a background catechism. Follow along as Hoh relates the carol and reviews the basic tenets of Christian doctrine.

Extra! Extra!

$10.50

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

If there were a press in Jesus' day, how might the events of Holy Week be reported? What would a press report on the passion and miracles of that fateful week? This book gives a possible glimpse to such coverage, as well as coverage of the Christmas events and the Ascension and Pentecost. This is the first of several books looking at possible press coverage of Bible events.

A Growing Light: Advent Meditations

$10.50

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

In all the hustle and bustle of Christmas preparations one often overlooks the meditation oasis known as the Advent season. Advent is the four week pre-Christmas season of the Church year that focuses on the coming fulfillment of Messianic prophecy as well as our own anticipated return of our Lord for the Judgment. "Advent" means "to come" and is appropriate as the focus is on both the Old Testament believers looking for the coming Messiah and New Testament believers looking for the return of the Christ. This book contains sermons and meditations for this season as well as an explanation of the Advent wreath and the candles within that wreath.

To Survey the Rugged Cross: A Holy Week Reflection

$13.00

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

Holy Week is a pivotal point in salvation history. It starts with the joyful acclamation of the Song of David, the Messiah, as the people "Hosannah" our Lord riding a donkey. We observe a new command in his body and blood. We see his excruciating and bloody death on a cross. And, just as we give up all hope as the disciples did, he rises victorious from the grave! Hallelujah! He has risen! He has risen indeed! Hallelujah! These writings and sermons reflect on those crucial events in our salvation.

Make Disciples-Baptize Them

$10.50

by John L. Hoh, Jr.

Baptism has been part of the life of the Church from the very beginning. At the Reformation questions and debates arose over the nature and proper method of baptism. This book features essays regarding this sacrament, both theological and fatherly, from a Lutheran point of view. It also contains a section of frequently asked questions (FAQs) that I have addressed over the years.
