

Web Page Requirements

Your team's job as campaign advisor is to complete a Web Page for your candidate.

There are several basic elements your web page should include.

Design Elements

- The name of your candidate should be clear.
- The office your candidate is running for should be clear.
- You candidate should have a slogan and/or logo associated with his/her campaign
 - This should tie into your candidate's print ad for name recognition.
- The page should have an appropriate use of colors.
- The page should use an appropriate background
- There should be at least three different images on your page.

Technical Elements

- There needs to be two pages to your candidates site
 - One page is about what your candidate hope to accomplish if he/she is elected
 - One page should be about the candidates background to demonstrate why he/she is qualified for the office
- Links need to take the viewer between one page and the next
