

December 3rd, 1849

Diary Entry #14:

I am very sorrowful from my depart from Ireland. I greatly miss the forge, as well as my folks who I fear I may never see again. Mary has promised to sail to Massachusetts sometime next year. I aim to propose soon after her arrival. For the moment, I must focus on setting up shop here in Waltham. I wish that

For THOMAS 10 Nov 3rd 1849