

The two pictures shown above are Wiper Controllers. The controllers mount on to motors, which mount on to modules. These modules are the wiper systems seen in today's vehicles. These are state of the art analog controllers that are EMC compliant and have superior quality and reliability. The very latest in SMD components and high frequency parts are integrated into these designs. As the Wiper Electronics Design/Product Engineer I am very proud my accomplishments. Valeo Wiper Systems.