

Bellatrix Lestrange

Deatheater and loyal servant of Lord Voldemort

Bellatrix Lestrange

Very little is known about Bellatrix's fashion therefore I have made some assumptions when designing her costumes - I guess she is from a rich family background, she is not in the least self-conscious and she loves all things dark and nasty... however she still likes to show off her good points - remember at her trial she sat on the accused's chair 'as if it were a throne'.
