

=Yavanna=

Yavanna is the second greatest of the Valie next to Varda. Kementári, Queen of the Earth, she is surnamed. In the form of a woman, she is tall and robed in green, but there are some who have seen her standing like a tree under heaven, crowned with the sun; golden dew spilling from its branches onto the earth, the roots of which were in the waters of Ulmo, and the winds of Manwë spoke in its leaves.
