Hammonton Democrats Announce “Fix the Roads Program”

Hammonton – As you ride around Hammonton, I’m sure you have felt the jolt from the many potholes and rough roads that presently exist throughout are Town. As the Democratic Candidates have been knocking on peoples doors, one of the main topics the citizens want to discuss is the repair of our roads in Hammonton. In response to this growing problem, the Hammonton Democratic Party has unveiled its “Fix the Roads” Program. The Democrats are encouraging residents to email the campaign with a list of the roads that residents think are in most need of repair. Once elected, the Democrats will use the consolidated list as a guide for their proposed Capital Improvement Fund. The Capital Improvement Fund provides a way of allocating revenue for the repair of roads without increasing the town’s already large debt.

“Both the Hammonton First and the Regular Republican parties are trying to take credit for the recent road improvements. What that they fail to tell residents is that theses roads are state and county roads. The town was not responsible for the repairs,” stated Town Council Candidate Anthony Falcone. “Our elected officials have failed to repair municipal roads. These are the roads for which the town is actually responsible,” stated Candidate Robin Ripa. “Our “Fix the Roads” program is another way that Democrats are showing their dedication to the entire Town of Hammonton, not just a few blocks,” added Candidate Mike Ammirato.

Residents are asked to send their list of the roads that they think should be repaired to FixtheRoads@hammontondems.com .

The Hammonton Democrats are an organization of dedicated individuals united in the interest of good government.
