

Jim Fabris's
College Admission Essay
Writing Workshops, 2009

If you are a college-bound teen, those 500 words are probably the most important you have ever had to write. So start early, take your time, and make your essay the best writing you have ever done.

This workshop will not only to help you write your best possible college admission essay, but it will also help you become a better writer.

Participants will learn:

- what kind of essays gain and keep the admission officers' attention
- how to use their experiences to develop compelling essay topics
- to write multiple drafts with the goal of writing clear lively prose
- how to draw thought-provoking conclusions that go beyond the usual clichés that doom most admission essays

The workshop will meet for four 90-minute classes, that will include group activities, individual writing time and peer and teacher critiques. Each participant will also receive two 50 minute individual meetings with Jim scheduled outside of class time.

Tuesdays, Sept. 29 - Oct. 20, 7:00 to 8:30 pm

Location: Westlake Wellbeing, 3355 Bee Caves Rd.

Workshop fee: $270

Limited to 8 participants per session, so enroll now!
