

WAGERS

Michael Ray Wagers, 58, of Holts Summit died Saturday, September 13, 2003 at Capital Region Medical Center.

Ads by Google

Births Deaths & Marriages

Trace your family tree online British ancestral records from 1837

www.1837online.com

He was born April 29, 1945 at Langley Field Air Force Base, Virginia, a son of Earl Raymond and Leona Mae Vivian Biggs Wagers. He was a graduate of Lincoln University with a degree in Criminal Justice. He was married May 12, 2000 in Jefferson City to Katherine Lawson, who survives at the home.

Find your Family Tree

4 billion names across 15 decades Trace your family history here

www.Ancestry.com

He served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War with the First Air Cavalry Division. He received numerous awards and citations, including the Bronze Star, and attained the rank of Captain. He was a deputy with the Callaway County Sheriff's Department, was head of security at the Callaway Nuclear Power Plant at Reform, and had served as Chief of Lincoln University Public Safety. He retired in 2000 from the Jefferson City Police Department as a Sergeant. He was a proud member of the National Rifle Association and the Fraternal Order of Police.

He is also survived by two sons: Christopher Wagers of Portland, Oregon; Mitch Wagers of Jefferson City; and two brothers: Jerry Wagers of Seattle, Washington; and Danny Wagers of Jefferson City.

Friends will be received from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. Tuesday at the HOUSER-MILLARD Funeral Directors - Jefferson City Chapel. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, September 17, 2003 at the HOUSER-MILLARD Funeral Directors - Jefferson City Chapel. Private family interment will be held. Expressions of sympathy may be made to the National Rifle Association. Arrangements are under the direction of HOUSER-MILLARD Funeral Directors, 2613 W. Main, 636-3838.