

NORTHWAY

Mrs. Gloria A. Northway, age 57 years, of Rocky Mount - a former Jefferson City resident - died Friday, May 7, 2004, at the University of Missouri Health Sciences Center, Columbia.

Mrs. Northway was born May 18, 1946, at Jefferson City, the daughter of Robert C. and Rometta Bugbee Wegman. Her mother, Rometta Wegman, survives in Jefferson City.

Gloria was married on November 18, 1972, at Amarillo, Texas, to Larry C. Northway, who survives at the home.

A life-long resident of the Jefferson City area, Mrs. Northway was a 1964 graduate of Jefferson City High School.

She was employed with the Missouri Senate for 23 years prior to her retirement in November 2002.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Northway was a well known artist for her Santa Claus collection and other decorative paintings.

Other survivors include: one daughter, Jodi L. Barnhouse of Lake St. Louis; one step-son, Blake C. Northway, of Jefferson City; one step-daughter, Kristie M. Colvin, of Centertown; one sister, Gayla L. Scott, of Jefferson City; and four grandchildren.

A memorial service will be conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 15, 2004, at the First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Jerrol Boehmer officiating. Private graveside services and interment will be conducted at the Hawthorn Memorial Gardens.

Friends may call at the parlor of the First United Methodist Church from 9 until 10 a.m. Saturday.

Those desiring may make memorial contributions to the Lupus Foundation of America or the First United Methodist Church.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Freeman Mortuary.
