

000224 Quick Addition

A couple of things that I forgot in the last message:

The group of us who will be staying in Yantai decided to be industrious with our time and form a book club. Books in English are difficult to come by in Yantai, so while we were in Shanghai we bought two books. We are by far not slackers. We are reading Dream of the Red Chamber and Ulyses. If anyone wants to send me the cliff notes for the later, I would appreciate it!

Also, if people could keep me up on the news, I would appreciate it. We don't get much other than from the web sites. The NY Times site is blocked, so no luck there. What is all this about China making threats to Taiwan? And did someone hack into Hotmail? We are having a really hard time accessing our accounts.

For anyone who has tried calling, there is a mysterious person answering my phone. I can only assume that it is at the school switchboard. If you do happen to call and you happen to get him instead of me, he will not relay any messages that you give him. I am trying to figure this out and to get an answering machine in the meanwhile.

That's it until next time,

Jeff
