The Great American Brochure by JAF[®]

Edition III

“Demonstrate Excellent Suggestibility” – JAF

Who is Jeremy Action Figure?

The JAF platform for Action Figure Technology is the best of breed among contemporary action figures, replicas, or other virtual caricatures.

Each JAF System operates with a minimum of stress, simple configuration, and 13 of the USDA's favorite vitamins and substances.

Why do I need a brochure?

The Great American Brochure by JAF[®] Edition III gives you the conceptual tools to embark on your own JAF Systems journey. Think of this brochure as a good map, a compass, and an extra pair of socks.

Of course, no one can prepare you fully for your unique voyage to JAF, but the information here introduces the values, image, and practical viewing issues behind this extraordinary signifier.

Genuine Automatic Shell

Durability is a concern, and JAF Systems takes steps to ensure that your investment in JAF endures. Consider these qualities:

- Not phony, not imitation, not misleading. Genuine.
- No shifting while you talk on the cell phone, sip coffee, and change lanes at 150 km/hour. Automatic.
- Protected by a rustproof coating. Shell.

How will I recognize JAF?

The Artist's Rendering of the Jeremy Action Figure provides an image of JAF that works for many of us.

The Artist's Rendering does not depict the actual size, shape, or appearance of JAF.

In this way, our divergent belief systems, capacities for interpretation, or socio-cultural milieus remain secure from the restrictions of an over-determined representational praxis.
