

Enthralled, enchanted, mesmerized,
Charmed and tickled and surprised,
Joyful, thrilled, elated too.....
All things we feel because of you.

What's the cause of all this bliss?
Let's just stop and reminisce.
A concert that fulfilled our dreams,
An album that is just supreme.....

Down under you were going first,
Then to Great Britain you'd traverse.
The US fans would wait till May
To learn when you would come their way.

The tour commenced to rave reviews.
The Aussie fans were so enthused!
They shared their tales on the web.
We wished that you were here instead.

Then came England's special night,
A show that filled fans with delight.
And all agreed it felt surreal.....
The Woburn Abbey show and Neil.

The first show here was Omaha.
The U.S. fans were filled with awe!
The stage, the lights, the songs you sang....
The best show ever, we exclaimed.

And when at last the album came,
It garnered nationwide acclaim.
Everybody loves "12 Songs".
You just can't help but sing along.

So that's the story of our bliss.
We can't thank you enough for this,
But we can honor you tonight
And do it with extreme delight!

Hell Yeah!!!
Happy Birthday, Neil
