

Name: Judith Buchholz

Qualifications:

PhD Candidate (Research) 2004 - Current

M.Clin.Psych. Awarded 2002

BSc. Hons.(Psychology) 1999 Australian National University

Dip.Ed. Awarded 1987 University of Newcastle

BSc. (Biology Majors) Awarded 1981 University of Newcastle

Academic Positions:

Teaching

Tutor, Division of Psychology, ANU, 1999 - 2007

Guest Lecturer, Third Year Cognition Course, ANU, 2006

Teaching Assistant, Third Year Cognition Course, ANU, 2005.

Guest Lecturer, Clinical Masters Course, ANU, 2003

Research Assistant, School of Psychology, ANU, 2002 - 2004.

Tutoring ANU

Third Year Abnormal Psychology, 2007

Third Year Cognition, 2002 - 2006

Third Year Health Psychology, 2006

Third Year Statistics and Methodology, 2002

Second Year Perception 2002

Second Year Biological Basis of Behaviour 2001 - 2002, 2007

Second Year Statistics and Methodology, 2000 - 2001

Second Year Cognition, 2000- 2002, 2006

First Year Psychology, 2000 - 2001

Other Employment:

Consultant Presenter, ACT Department of Education, 2002

Consultant Psychologist, ANU LDU, 2002 - 2003

Psychologist (Neuropsychology), The Canberra Hospital, 2002

High School/College Teacher (Maths/Science), ACT, 1992-1999

High School Teacher (Maths/Science), VIC, 1991 - 1992

High School Teacher (Maths/Science), NSW, 1987 - 1990

Microbiologist, Newcastle Hospital, 1981 - 1982

Professional Memberships

Current registration with ACT Board of Psychology.

Member of the Australian Psychological Association.

Cognitive Neuroscience Society.