A bit about our menu...

Our Focaccia bread and pizza crust is made inhouse, hand pressed, and baked daily in our Woodstone firebrick oven. The house cheese is a special blend of mozzarella/provolone and used on all pizzas unless otherwise stated or requested. Our menu may vary monthly, weekly or even daily as we strive to provide top quality fare. We think we have a pretty good start and welcome your comments in order to assist in the on going process!
