PHIL COVERS UP SCANDAL WITH FAKE KISS

Last Saturday night, as you know, was the Kappa/Phi Lambda public mixer. The night was going swell and everyone was having a great time. People were eating and playing games, of course every one knew that The Electric Veltens were about to play at Starbucks so they weren't gonna stay very long. After things started to settle down and people were just kinda standing around, all of a sudden there was some kicking and screaming going on at the kissing booth. I thought that someone might of slipped some tongue, but no Phil had kissed MAMA Gwyn in the kissing booth. I thought he had gone insane. But maybe Phil just likes old women.

Many people just laughed it off but I was very suspicious of what was going on. A couple of days later, Drew, Walktoria and I were sitting in Yeung's kitchen when all of a sudden Phil and Tim walk in together, each with huge smiles on their faces staring at one another. It may have seemed like they were just laughing at the stupid thing Phil just said but I was curious. So when they walked in I watched closely at their actions. I observed Phil holding Tim's hand while they ate their egg rolls and Tim wiping the soy sauce from Phil's face with a napkin. After I thought about this weird thing that was happening, I realized that Phil just covered up Him and Tim's secret rendezvous with the kiss that he gave MAMA Gwyn the other night at the mixer. I came to this conclusion because Phil is always talking about MAMA Gwyn and how she and him just love each other. Well that is all a lie. THE TRUTH IS THAT PHIL AND TIM ARE HOMOS. Phil and Tim weren't there to get Yeung's to sponsor Kappa, they were there to get Yeung's to sponsor their tip to San Fran. I think it is time for a change and that randy needs to be our president.

I CAN'T BELIEVE THEM TWO. JAN YOU DATED A GAY MAN.

CONLEY TO DO CLUB PRESENTATION

Over the past couple of years, Kappa has been known to do really funny and hilarious and super outrageously long and gay club presentations. I absolutely loves Latarion last year in his guest appearance in the presentation.

Well this year we have a new guest appearance and it is none other that the great Matthew Conley. Conley is a former member of Kappa from way back in the day. He is very qualified to give this speech for us.

Other speakers include Tim, the homo pres.
