NAVY

DEATH TOUCH SQUADRON

Hail Warriors!

We of the Death Touch Squadron have been very busy during the end of 2003 and logged a lot of glorious victories in the name of the Klingon Empire!

In November, the Commander took a well-earned mini-vacation with her mate, Katkith, to Beach Bash. A glorious time was had and a lot of friends were made. It is hoped that we will be able to attend next year's as well.

On November 22nd, the IKV Blood Moon held a fund-raiser for the Children's Hospital of the Carolinas Medical Center, Charlotte, NC. The event took place at the Media Play in Gastonia and netted $25. Not bad for a first event with a new charity! Qapla'!

In December we participated in three Christmas Parades, one in each sector that our ships patrol: Gastonia -- IKV Blood Moon, Hickory -- IKV Executioner, and Lenoir -- IKV Raging Wolf.

We have been as busy as time and resources allowed. So it was with particular sense of pride that we had our Christmas Party on December 21st at Seven of Nine and Ka'SandI's home coordinates. Keela fixed a turkey, rice, gravy, green beans and stuffing. Gorrath brought two pies, rolls and drinks. Seven also supplied drinks. Kehlyr sent sweet potato pies. Ka'Rowe brought a pumpkin pie. A good time was had by all, though Gorrath and company had to return to Gastonia because of work. Keela thanks all for the present she got -- rooster soup mugs and chicken noodle soup mix gift pack!

One package to the Missouri Indian Center was sent off. A second one has been packed as of this writing, awaiting funds to send. The Quadrant will be notified that this is a Kill Stripe Challenge (see below)!!!!

It is hoped that 2004 will bring prosperity to all the Klingons so that we may be able to participate in service to the Empire more often! Qapla'!!!!

KILL STRIPE CHALLENGE

Hail Honorable CO's of Dark Star Quadrant,

Starting in MARCH and going to the end of the year, I, your Commander, challenge the honorable Ships of Dark Star Quadrant to participate in a Kill Stripe Challenge.

It is designed to support the Southwest Missouri Indian Center. These folks have little or no federal help for the local tribes and since times are hard, children are going hungry and toyleless. There is a need for food products of all kinds, as well as health care products, toys, blankets, clothes, etc. Food is paramount, however.

All participating members of participating ships will receive a battlenotch at the end of the year, awarded by your CO. Whichever ship mails the most assistance to the Southwest Missouri Indian Center will get a nice prize as well as each participating member being honored with a KILL STRIPE specifically designed for this Challenge.

Just email me and let me know how many pounds and items (both are taken into consideration) you have mailed / UPS'd / Fed Exed or whatever. I will keep track and announce the winner in January 2005!

GOOD HUNTING!!!!!!

IKV Blood Moon

Hail Warriors of Death Touch Squadron,

It has been a couple of busy months for us here in Gastonia, in November we had our first battle for the Blood Moon crew. It was glorious victory -- we raised money for the Children's Hospital of the Carolinas Medical Center with the help of Media Play. We raised $25.00. That was a good start. We had Commander Keela and Lt. Ka'rowe from the Raging Wolf along with a member of the STIF to help. Thank you for your support.

Now, on to December. It has been a very busy month. On Dec. 7 we walked in the Gastonia Christmas parade in which we had a lot of crowd support. Again Commander Keela and Lt. Ka'Rowe were there, as well as the members of the Blood Moon. We had my mate T'Mar, Valkyrie, and the one that stole the show, our little Gorn child, Gornie.

We then shuttled up to Hickory on the 11th and helped out the Executioner with that Christmas Parade; it was fun, but cold, yet we had a good time.

I and my family wish all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Lt. Gorrath vestai
CO, IKV Blood Moon

IKV Executioner

Hail Warriors!

Currently there is not much happening. The holidays took most of our time and resources. We had a good Christmas party on December 21st. As a ship, we're slowly building back up to get up to full speed. We will be participating in a joint recruitment activity in February with some of the local Feddies. Hosting a squad meeting on February 15th. Hoping to attend ConCarolinas and work security.

On a personal note, had teeth knocked out and am getting fitted for a new set of fangs on the 27th.

IKV Raging Wolf

Greetings Warriors!

The Raging Wolf continues to plug along! I have been encouraging those members we never see to attend. We sent off a care package to the Missouri Indian Center, and it arrived before Christmas! Thanks to all who helped. We hope to do more work with charities in 2004. We are also hoping to have armor workshops in the near future to help our Warriors present the most imposing appearance possible.

Future plans include a local Days of Honor event, Con Carolinas and Heroes Convention. Qapla'!

Guest Report From the Quicksand Sector

Hail Keela,

I hope this finds you well.

I come to you bearing good news. I was in the process of creating a generic Klingon newsletter but after the challenges my club have handed me of late I have put that on the back burner. I will be sending you "news reports" on a regular basis of the goings on in the Quicksand Sector for you to use as you see fit. I wish this to be a platform for our Independent Klingons down here to share information and ideas with the Dark Star Quadrant. I hope this will be beneficial to the advancement of Klingdom as a whole. I hope to have open dialog with you on a regular basis to this end. Be well!

Response From DSQ CO

Hail Maq'mang,

I am pleased that the Dark Star Quadrant of the Klingon Assault Group can have this relationship with the IKV Honor's Blade. We would be pleased to include your input. It is good to have friends all across the galaxy. Please apprise your Klingon brethren that they may download and read DARK MATTERS at their leisure anytime. I do believe this cooperative effort of exchanging news and holo-images will be beneficial to the advancement of Klindom as a whole.

Klingon Feast

September 26-28, 2003 -- Florida

IKV Honor's Blade

The Klingon Feast, put on by KLaw was a glorious event! Klingons from several different groups, including KAG, attend this event. All had a good time as evidenced by the holographic images following. Next year's Feast will be September 24-26. Here is a message from Ambassador LaQrue regarding it:

Greetings all,

This year's Feast has moved to a new home. Hotel and dates are now confirmed. Mark your calendars for Sept. 24-26th and join us at the Holiday Inn Daytona Beach Shores for another great weekend of playing Klingon. Visit the website for more details <http://groups.msn.com/klingonfeast>

Apologies go to those that have received this notice more than once -- the mailing list is still being redone!
