

The Kenilworth Historical Society Inc.

Do you have an interest in history, geneology, antiques or any other aspect of the past?

If so, you already have a lot in common with members of the Kenilworth Historical Society — an independent, non-profit organization dedicated to acquiring knowledge about Kenilworth's past, preserving our heritage and enhancing the image of our community through various educational programs and activities.

Won't You Join Us?

There's no better time than the present to be a member of the Kenilworth Historical Society

 The Kenilworth Historical Society is venturing into new areas and embarking upon a number of exciting programs. Foremost among these is our project to restore the historic 19th-century Nitschke House and transform it into a "living history" museum and cultural arts center. Once completed, the facility will house our extensive collection of artifacts and serve as an ever-evolving place of learning and enjoyment for people of all ages and backgrounds.

 Membership in the Kenilworth Historical Society offers individuals an opportunity to learn more about Kenilworth's colorful history while applying their specific interests and talents to a range of important and rewarding community projects. Regular meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month (except July and August) at 7 p.m. at the Kenilworth Seniors' Center, 526 Boulevard, and frequently feature guest speakers.

 The Kenilworth Historical Society sponsors a variety of programs to inspire an interest in history within the community and to serve as a resource for people of all ages in relating local history to history on a larger scale.

Membership is open to anyone interested in Kenilworth's history.
