NIGHTDANCER SOVIET SPY!

By Hubert Hubbersmith

The masked femme fatale calling herself Nightdancer has been revealed by leaked CIA documents to be a Communist agent, trained in espionage and assassination by the dreaded KGB. Government officials refused to comment on this surprising revelation, but it was noteworthy that the CIA did not refute the charges. "We are unable to either confirm or deny any such information," said CIA representative Johnson. Citizens are urged to contact police with any information regarding this dangerous enemy agent or her comrade, The Wall, who should also be assumed to be a Soviet spy.

Pollard Chosen as Director of LexCorp West

By Prescott Price

Businessman Paul Pollard, a native of Sunset City and a graduate of Gotham City Business College, has been selected by Dr Alexander Luthor to serve as Vice President of Western Operations for LexCorp. Mr Pollard will be overseeing the construction of LexCorp Tower in the Financial District, and has been invited to join the Citizens' League.

Hit and Run Death

Edward 'Edgy' Edwards, a well-known patron of the Bayside Thoroughbred Racecourse, was killed by an unknown assailant in a hit-and-run accident. Services will be held for family and friends at the Mordinia Funeral Home. Mourners are requested to place bets at Bayside in his name.

COAST GUARD RESCUES DR LUTHOR

By Kendell Caperman

Dr Alexander Luthor was saved from certain death by the heroic men of the US Coast Guard after being abducted and chained to Seal Rock. An alert citizen reported the presence of a man on Seal Rock, and the Coast Guard was immediately dispatched to the scene. Preliminary reports indicate that enemies of America chose Dr Luthor as a target as part of a campaign against our leading scientific minds. Citizens are urged to continue to be alert to any signs of foreign agents, and report all suspicious activities to the proper authorities.

Seals May Swim the Distance this Year

By Lefty Lewis

The Sunset Seals appear poised to have their best year in over a decade, with a returning strong infield and a couple of powerful new batters. The Metropolis Heroes are the front runners for the pennant, of course, but the Seals are definitely in the running against their chief rivals, along with the Gotham City Angels, the Mountain City Eagles, and the Seals' bitter rivals the Greater Hollywood Stars. Less is expected from other League teams, particularly the disappointing Capital City Patriots. Sports fans can expect an exciting year at Sir Francis Drake Stadium.

Bomb Threat Against Foundlings Home

By Kendell Caperman

An anonymous threat against the Sunset City Foundlings' Home caused the evacuation of the building, and several hours of fruitless search by police bomb experts, before the bomb threat was declared to be a cruel hoax. The prankster has not yet been identified, although police say they are following up several promising leads.

Luthor Meets with University Scientists

By Jack Kemp

During his visit to Sunset City, Nobel Laureate Dr Alexander Luthor made time for personal meetings with many of Sunset University's leading scientists. Reports are that the University is looking forward to a close relationship with LexCorp West, similar to that between the parent office and Metropolis University.

Russian Vandals Damage Power Station

By Kendell Caperman

A group of Russians, apparently under the influence of too much vodka, caused a minor power outage in the Parkside South district when they temporarily took over a TEC substation, doing substantial damage. Several of these thugs were revealed to have been previously arrested for public brawling in Sunset Park. Concerned citizens expressed their hopes that they would not be as quickly released after this latest escapade.
