

SUNSET CITY SENTINEL

NEW CRIMINAL MASTERMIND DEFEATS NIGHTDANCER

By Patricia Weathers

A new threat to Sunset City has made his appearance, striking terror into the hearts of the citizens of the city with his easy defeat of one of the city's staunch defenders, the highly skilled and attractive superheroine Nightdancer. The lovely crimefighter spotted the archcriminal and his band of ruffians when they held up the Great White Scuba Store. She dashed to the defense of the helpless storeowner, as is her wont, but the criminal, a fiendish genius calling himself The Chessmaster, led his gang against the heroine in a quick paced battle that left her beaten and unconscious. Police, called to the scene, rushed the injured Nightdancer to Sunset City General Hospital, where doctors worked feverishly over her limp form. Nightdancer, with the inhuman healing ability that so many metahumans are known for, was able to leave the hospital by the next day, despite the severity of her injuries. Now the city holds its breath in anticipation of The Chessmaster's next attack.

Vigilance Fights Tong

By Johnny Chin

The superhero Vigilance was involved in a fight in Chinatown with several suspected tong members, leaving nearly twenty sword-wielding thugs unconscious. The suspected tong members were arrested for possession of deadly weapons and attempted assault. Police sources say that they are unsure of the reason for the battle, but that they suspect Vigilance is investigating reports of increased gang activity inside Chinatown.

Rhodesian Ambassador Arrives in Sunset City

By Butler Wiseman

Ambassador Frederick Mzinga of Rhodesia is currently in Sunset City for talks with numerous politicians and businessmen. The Ambassador expressed his delight with Sunset City's many attractions and his hopes for continued cordial relations between his nation and the United States.

Dixie Hill Honored at Seals Game

By Cat Cardigan

The lovely and stylish Dixie Hill was honored by Mayor Gordon Goodman at the opening game of the baseball season, and the elegantly attired heroine threw the first pitch to open the game. Mayor Goodman spoke in praise of the well-beloved Miss Hill, and the crowd gave her a standing ovation. The highly popular Miss Hill stayed for the game as the guest of the mayor, and was able to enjoy, with the rest of the hometown crowd, the sight of our own well-dressed gold-and-white uniformed Seals easily defeating the yellow-and-black clad Greater Hollywood Stars.

Mysterious Television Signal Interrupts Broadcast

By Chase Chesterton

Sunset City residents were mystified by the unexplained interruption of their nightly television viewing by the sight of a strangely garbed man. This interruption, which appears to have covered the entire dial and the whole of Sunset City, has not been adequately explained by television executives, although they stress that there is no need for concern. Anyone with any knowledge of the causes for this interference is urged to contact the National Television Agency.

Soldier Claims to See Ghost at Army Base

By Mark Mars

An unnamed private stationed at Presidium Army Base claims to have seen the ghostly form of a woman walking through walls while he was on duty patrolling the base. The soldier, who was overheard making the claim at a local bar, insists that he was not dreaming and had not been drinking. When contacted regarding this report, General Armstrong's office issued a statement that the official policy of the US Army is that there are no known ghosts on any US military bases.