

February 2007

Student of the Month

Ross Hackenmiller

The February Student of the Month is Ross Hackenmiller. Ross is the son of Craig and Barb Hackenmiller of Mantorville.

Academically, Ross has achieved a 4.0 grade point average over his high school career which has also earned him honor roll status. He is ranked first in his senior class of 114 students.

In school, Ross has kept himself busy with sports and clubs including Track, Choir, Band, Science Olympiad, Knowledge Bowl, Chamber Singers, Speech Team, Jazz Band, National Honor Society, and the Fall Play.

Outside of school, Ross enjoys singing, playing guitar and bass guitar, playing computer, and writing, playing, and listening to music. Ross is also very active with his church including Youth Group, Church Worship Band, and Peer Ministry. When not at school or at church, Ross is working at the Kasson State Theatre as a Student Manager.

Ross believes "seeing things from other people's perspectives and thinking how I would act in their circumstances before judging them" has helped him be successful in school and life.

After graduation Ross will be attending St. Olaf College.
