

March 2006

Student of the Month

Nicole Lampland

The March Student of the Month is Nicole Lampland. Nicole is the daughter of Scott and Paula Lampland of Mantorville.

Academically, Nicole has achieved a 4.0 grade point average over her high school career which has also earned her high honor roll status. She is ranked first in her senior class of 115 students.

In school, Nicole has kept herself busy with numerous clubs and activities including Senior Band (Secretary), HVL Honor Band, National Honor Society, Science Olympiad, Knowledge Bowl, and Big Brothers Big Sisters.

Outside of school, Nicole enjoys spending her time volunteering at St. John's Lutheran Church as a Kindergarten Sunday School Teacher, taking flying lessons, and equestrian riding.

After graduation Nicole will be attending Colgate University in New York and majoring in Chemistry. Her career goal is to be working in Veterinary Medicine.
