

Karlene M. Krista is the founder and Chief Consultant of Win Agency, an agency that promotes the empowerment of women. As Chief Consultant Karlene is responsible for all components of Winagency, those components include but are not limited to Motivational Speaking, Personal Defense and Private Investigations. Karlene has presented her positive message to women in all segments of society; she has spoken to civic groups, major corporations, students and private citizens.

Before starting Win Agency Karlene served as a Blue Ash Police Officer for twenty years. She was involved in cases ranging from Traffic Fatalities and Armed Robberies to Sexual Assaults and Homicides. For three of those years, she was assigned to an undercover Narcotics Task Force and worked in that capacity in several Counties in Southwest Ohio. During her last five years at the Blue Ash Police Department Karlene worked as a Crime Prevention Specialist, it was during this period that Karlene began stressing the importance of Crime Prevention as it applies to women.

Before joining the Blue Ash Police Department Karlene retired after twenty years as an Industrial Engineer at Senco Products in Newtown, Ohio.

Karlene has a BS in Engineering and an AS in Library Science. She is also a State-Certified Hypnotherapist in the fields of Forensic, Clinical, Medical and Dental Hypnosis. Karlene is also a Certified National Rifle Association instructor and is authorized to teach Home Firearm Safety, Basic Pistol Course and Personal Protection. Karlene is a Crime Prevention Specialist in the State of Ohio. Karlene is a NovaLash certified Lash Extensionist,