

Ranil, JHU and the Benz saga

Background to the scene:

The Jathika Hela urumaya (JHU) has become the most trusted and reliable ally for Mr Rajapaksa. Interestingly, the government's most successful (and popular) tasks, namely, war against LTTE terrorist and the anti drug/liquor movement ('Mathata Thitha') has been triggered by JHU.

- This justifies the fact that UNP and Ranil is madly targeting JHU monks in the recent past.
- There is a good tendency of patriotic UNP members crossing over into the government (Keheliya, Karu, Hemakumara, etc).
- This has increased the non patriotic (NGO/pro separatists) density within UNP.
- Mr.Ravi karunanayaka (a non Buddhist) is the master mind behind this drama(he has enough money to invest on drama by earnings on SATHOSA privatization deals etc.).
- Recently, UNP got the company of two more drama directors namely Mangala and SriPathy whom were introduced or upheld by the witch lady CBK (The bitch who did not respect her motherland).
- So we can expect more drama's in the coming months.

Story behind the scene:

Those who voted for JHU never mind this. Because all those who voted for JHU had national interests and not petty selfish interests. So JHU is not funded by corrupt businessmen. Still JHU need funds to operate as a political party. This is the most genuine way of raising money for the JHU.

I highly support JHU's decision to utilize money by selling/hiring their vehicles.

Those corrupted politicians and their allayed businessmen have gone mad that if this tendency continues all those are going to lost their power.They are trying to play JHU into the hand of corrupted businessmen by depriving their only source of income (the salary and other funds) . (i.e. try to make it another political party rely on corrupted businessmen)

So they are hitting hard, but in vain !!! because the main presenter of the scenes is mere feeble clown named Ranil (the Half-Man).
