TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I, the undersigned, Sanitsuda Ekachai, Assistant Editor (Outlook), Bangkok Post, certify that Ms Wanphen Sreshthaputra, was employed by the Bangkok Post from March 1997 to March 2002.

Initially Ms Wanphen Sreshthaputra worked for Student Weekly as senior reporter and was later promoted to be feature editor of the Student Weekly in 1999. In 2000, she joined Outlook, the general feature section of the Bangkok Post as a feature writer.

Throughout the five years she spent with the Bangkok Post, Ms Wanphen Sreshthaputra was highly valued for her fine writing skills and genuine commitment to hard work. During the time I was her supervisor at the Outlook section, I was highly impressed by her quick grasp at various complex issues, her high-quality, readable writing and her ability to retain serenity amid very hectic work schedules without missing a deadline.

Ms Wanphen Sreshthaputra has a pleasant personality which makes it easy for her to work in a team and to co-ordinate with people from other sections. She is well-loved by all her co-workers and her decision to leave the newspaper has left a void difficult to fill.

With her strong journalistic background, her previous work experiences and her strong drive to succeed in any assignments she sets her mind to, I am certain that Ms Wanphen Sreshthaputra will excel in the position she is applying at your organisation.

Sincerely yours,

Sanitsuda Ekachai

Assistant Editor (Outlook)
