INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE FRAUD SUIT FOR YEARS COMMENCING IN 1953 AND THEREAFTER, ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT OF TRANSFER OF LEGAL CLAIMS

There exists at the singular location of the Quinney Law Library, located in Salt Lake City, Utah, certain real and factual evidence which shows by a preponderance of the evidence that major fraud and cover up of fraud has been committed by the Internal Revenue Service, and furthered by the National Archives Division of the Federal Register and by the United States Government Printing Office, under the auspices and aegis of the United States, upon the undersigned at a time or times commencing somewhere between the years of 1953 to the current date set forth below.

The location of the evidence, aforementioned, thus duly considered, the undersigned does hereby Assign and Transfer directly over to the Team of attorneys Victor Gordon and Preston Howell of Salt Lake City, Utah, accompanied subsequently by Team Assistant and Supporter - USFCA attorney at law Dr Dale Livingston, tms, DLC, JD, and/or other associates or designees of the Team (hereinafter whether singularly or collectively as “Prosecutor”), for prosecution and collection purposes, related to Evidence and Information previously provided to the Defendant Internal Revenue Service for Defendant’s own knowledge in relation to the evidence gathered and disclosed in two videos produced and copyrighted by Ultimate 2001, a legal entity established under the laws of the State of Utah for the purpose of carrying out investigative research of the historical and current activities of the Internal Revenue Service, all claims and causes of action that the undersigned has against the Internal Revenue Service, as the same exists in conjunction with the evidence located in Salt Lake City, Utah, Quinney Law Library.

The undersigned believes that there has been sufficient evidence gathered and provided by Ultimate 2001 to establish sound charges of both major constitutional and hard-core fraud by the Internal Revenue Service, and a more than reasonable degree of evidence to support the belief that there have been severely fraudulent acts committed by both the IRS federal agency and the 83rd Congress, 2nd session, in its establishment of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 on August 16, 1954, and of other acts committed by the Internal Revenue Service commencing in 1953 relating to the production of the Title 26 Code of Federal Regulations editions produced between the years of 1953 through 1961 and a subsequent cover up of the frauds imposed upon citizens of the United States, and of certain relevant editions of the Federal Register for those years, and of acts by both the National Archives division of the Federal Register and of the United States Government Printing Office involving a cover up of the cover up of the Internal Revenue Service, aforementioned.

The undersigned is desirous of obtaining either a Settlement or a Judgement for damages arising out of the fraudulent collection of taxes in the amount of $0000000000000 imposed upon the undersigned by the IRS federal agency, commencing generally upon the public of the United States in the year of 1953, and commencing upon me specifically in the year of 0000, and the continuation of such said frauds from 1953 forward to the current year of 2003. For purposes of judicial economy and in order to reduce litigation expenses, the undersigned warrants that the said same has irrevocably assigned over to Prosecutor and/or his assignees or designees all right, title, and interest that the undersigned has against the Defendant, or Defendants if there shall at any time arise to be more than the one involved in this matter. Prosecutor may, on behalf of the undersigned, either settle or litigate, or both, the claims and causes of action of the undersigned against the Defendant(s) on terms deemed best by Prosecutor.

The Prosecutor shall prosecute or negotiate a settlement of legal action against the Defendant(s), advancing the costs of litigation. Out of any settlement or award, Prosecutor shall be reimbursed for costs of litigation advanced and shall receive 11 % of the net proceeds after deducting from the gross sum settled upon or award / judgement handed down any costs attributable to the undersigned and the undersigned shall receive 89 % of that amount.

Prosecutor has made no representations or warranties with regard to the prospects for success against the Defendant(s) not contained here. Any changes or modifications to this Assignment are only effective upon a written agreement signed by the undersigned and by Prosecutor and / or his assignee or designee. Any settlement or award shall be in the name of the undersigned and Prosecutor, and / or his assignee or designee. For settlement purposes only, the undersigned appoints and authorizes Prosecutor to sign the undersigned's name to any settlement check or draft for deposit and for distribution of the proceeds as set forth above.

Time is expressly declared to be the essence of this agreement and each provision hereof. If Prosecutor has not received either the original or a facsimile copy of this signed Assignment by commencement of prosecution before the United States Court of Federal Claims or other such equivalent jurisdiction, Prosecutor shall have no obligation to pursue the undersigned's claims or causes of action against the Defendant(s). This Assignment may be transmitted by facsimile that shall be valid as an originally signed document.
