

Dear Friend,

If you would like to understand George Fox's holy path of peace, I have several suggestions on how you might use the materials in this course.

1. Read the pamphlet "God's Plan For How to Live A Peaceful Life."
2. Go over the review questions at the end of this pamphlet.
3. If you understand George Fox's plan for living a peaceful life, read the next pamphlet about John Woolman's "The Path Of Quaker Peace: The Simple Life."
4. However, if you still have some questions about what Fox believes, read the next two pamphlets, "George Fox's Catechism for Children, 1660" and "How May We Become Children Of The Light? Some Questions For George Fox Based On His Catechism For Children, 1660." Between these two pamphlets, you will find answers to most of the questions you have ever had about the Quaker faith.
5. The final pamphlet, "An Appendix," answers, in some detail the question: Who is the God of the Quakers?
