

March 2005 Schedule of Classes
(March 1 to March 25)

Time	Level	Subject	Description
10:00am to 12:00 noon	Novice to Intermediate	BIDDING II	Competitive Bidding - this class will bid and play preset hands. The concentration will be on how to interfere in opponents' auctions and how to handle it when they interfere in your auctions. Included will be Overcalls, Negative and Take-out Doubles, and Cue bidding.
12:30pm to 2:30pm	Beginner	PART III	This is month three of "An introduction to bridge". Now we go into the world of defense. There will be constant reviews of bidding and play, but here we will concentrate on defeating the opponents' contracts. This is another great refresher class for those who find defense a mystery.
3:00pm to 5:00pm	Novice to Intermediate	DEFENSE I	This class assumes you know the basics of defense. We will go into much more depth about leads, signals, discarding, and sending false messages. You will bid and play and defend preset hands.

April 2005 Schedule of Classes
(March 29 to April 22)

Time	Level	Subject	Description
------	-------	---------	-------------

10:00am to 12:00 noon	Novice to Intermediate	THE WORKS	This class covers bidding, declaring and defending preset hands with no lectures. This is a general, all inclusive, refresher class for those whose bridge needs some general work.
12:30pm to 2:30pm	Beginner	PART IV	Month four of the beginning bridge series. Here we will learn to interfere in the opponents' bidding, and how to handle it when they interfere in our auctions. Having trouble handling these situations? Then this is a great class to join.
3:00pm to 5:00pm	Intermediate to Advanced	The Law of Total Tricks	When should you compete? To what level is it safe to compete?
